

Minnesota Troops Enforce Martial Law at Albert Lea

Governor Orders Them to Patrol Packing Plant Area

BY SHERMAN LINDELL

Albert Lea, Minn. —(AP)— National guardsmen with fixed bayonets dispersed a jeering crowd of several hundred persons at the strike-torn Wilson Packing company plant today to back up Gov. Orville Freeman's declaration of martial law in Freeborn county.

The crowd was apparently hooting not at the soldiers but at non-union production workers whom the guardsmen turned away from the Wilson gates as they reported for work this morning.

The guard, moving swiftly after the governor's call to maintain law and order, shut down the Wilson plant to all but non-union supervisory and clerical workers. The production workers, hired by Wilson to replace striking union workmen, showed up in numbers today apparently before they got word the troops were called out and the plant shut down.

Outer Space Plan Approved

U. S. and Russia Agree on Setting Up World Agency

United Nations, N. Y. —(AP)— The United States and the Soviet Union agreed today on a plan for setting up a U. N. body to cooperate in the peaceful uses of outer space.

The final agreement was reached by U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge and Vasily V. Kuznetsov, Soviet deputy foreign minister, after several weeks of private negotiations.

The plan will be laid before the U. N. political committee for quick action before the general assembly ends its 1959 session tomorrow.

Ike Urges World to Engage In 'Noble War' on Hunger

Calls for Recognition of International Law as Sound Basis for Peace.

BY WILLIAM L. RYAN

New Delhi —(AP)— President Eisenhower today called upon all nations to wage together a "genuinely noble war" against hunger and famine, the scourges of India and much of this part of the world.

The American president, making three speeches in the course of a busy day continued to be the center of almost worshipful masses of people.

"Men right now possess knowledge and resources for a successful worldwide war against hunger—the sort of war that dignifies and exalts human beings," he declared in opening the dramatic American pavilion at New Delhi's world agricultural fair.

In two earlier speeches he: 1. Called for an expansion of the universal recognition of world law as a sound basis of peace. 2. Declared summit conferences of the big powers have less enduring influence for peace than exchanges of students and people-to-people contacts.

Pledges U. S. Help
A surging, colorful crowd of 10,000 Indians jammed the enclosed field at the fair to hear the president term India a mighty influence for world peace and pledge American help toward solving this nation's critical food shortages.

Crowds numbering hundreds of thousands lined the route to the fair grounds, cheering, Eisenhower as he passed by with Indian President.

Douglas Deputy Defense Chief

Washington — (AP) — James H. Douglas becomes deputy secretary of defense today and Dudley C. Sharp takes over as secretary of the air force.

The two take their oaths in a double Pentagon ceremony.

Douglas, President Eisenhower announced the Douglas appointments yesterday.

Douglas, 60, had been secretary of the air force since 1957. Sharp, 55, became undersecretary of the air force earlier this year after serving nearly four years as assistant secretary.

Both are Princeton graduates and Republicans. Douglas was a Chicago lawyer before going to the Pentagon as undersecretary of the air force in 1953. Sharp had been with the Mission Manufacturing company of Houston, Texas, from 1927 to 1955.

The two appointments are subject to senate action. The changes result from the promotion of Thomas S. Gates, Jr., from deputy secretary to secretary of defense to succeed Neil H. McElroy. McElroy resigned last week.

Jobs Decline Over Million In November

Unemployment Has Increase of Nearly 400,000 in Month

Washington — (AP) — Employment declined by over a million in November to 65,640,000. Unemployment rose nearly 400,000 to 3,670,000.

The employment decline was somewhat greater than seasonal, but still represented a record number of Americans in jobs for the month of November.

Even so, it was the second highest idle total for a November since before World war II. The postwar record for November is the 3,833,000 unemployed in 1958.

In making public the job report today, Seymour Wolfbein, deputy assistant secretary of labor, said that if only seasonal economic influences occur between now and early next year, unemployment will probably rise to about 4,250,000 in January or February.

Shortages Factor
This would be about one-half million to one million less than the unemployment figures for January and February in the recession year of 1958.

The November job data was collected only a few days after the steel strike was ended in early November by court injunction.

The figures reflected a sizable return of Steelworkers to their jobs, but a considerable dent in the employment total because of over 600,000 layoffs due to steel shortages.

Also November brings a seasonal decline in outdoor work such as construction and agriculture.

Vatican Cautious on Report of Nikita Visit

Vatican City — (AP) — The Vatican cocked a wary eye today at reports published abroad that Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev seeks an audience with Pope John XXIII.

Said a Vatican press office spokesman: "We know nothing of any such request. Such a request should have to be preceded by demonstration that Soviet Russia's attitude toward the church has improved."

De Gaulle Criticized

Top NATO Officers See Weakness In Military Policies of Allies

BY GEORGE MCARTHUR

Paris — (AP) — The highest military officers of the North Atlantic alliance have concluded that the present trend of allied military policies will lead to dangerous weakness unless checked immediately.

Authoritative sources said this was the conclusion of the military committee of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, which ended its annual review yesterday.

In the meeting, the chairman of the U. S. joint chiefs of staff, Gen. Nathan Twining, dropped a diplomatic bombshell by placing his finger squarely on France as the major offender. By implication he charged that French President Charles De Gaulle is the man responsible.

The speech was greeted by raised eyebrows and shocked looks in the corridors of the Palais de Chaillot, where the committee met in secret session.

Informants said the tenor of the military committee's conclusions was "we are going to hell in a hurry unless something is done soon."

The military men are perturbed particularly by the failure of most NATO governments to carry out 1957 agreements in principle to accept U. S. atomic weapons and stockpiles on their soil and to integrate their air forces into one air defense structure for Europe.

De Gaulle has stalled both steps. He has declared publicly that integration of France's forces into the NATO structure is unpalatable to him and a dead issue so far as he is concerned. He has refused to accept American stockpiles of atomic weapons on French soil unless he gets more control over them than the United States is willing to give. As a result American air force units are being shifted to bases in Britain and West Germany.

Cubans Accuse Reporter of Helping American Fugitive

British Newsman Also Seized But Later Ordered Released

BY HAROLD K. MILKS

Havana — (AP) — Fidel Castro's regime today arrested but later released a British newsman. Still held was reporter James Buchanan of the Miami Herald, on charges that he was aiding Frank Austin Young, an American, sentenced by a Castro military court.

The British correspondent is Ian Aitken, representing Lord Beaverbrook's newspapers. He was seized after returning from an investigation of Young's escape from jail in Pinar del Rio.

On his release, Aitken said he had been asked virtually nothing about Young, but had been asked if he knew a man named Buchanan. His questioners apparently were referring to the Miami reporter.

Agents who arrested Buchanan said he was entering the hotel room in which they recaptured Young yesterday.

A U. S. embassy representative said he understood officials planned to take Buchanan before a Havana judge and charge him with having been Young's accomplice, on the ground he tried to help a fugitive.

"I was just after a story," Buchanan told a reporter, adding that he had never seen Young before Wednesday night.

He said he really did not believe the man he was interviewing was Young until yesterday morning. When he was convinced, he contacted the U. S. embassy and planned to go there but took a bandage to Young's room and was nabbed, he said.

Buchanan said he had packed and made plane reservations for home when arrested. Young, a 38-year-old pilot-adventurer from Miami, sentenced to 30 years in prison Tuesday in Pinar del Rio for conspiring against Castro's government. He escaped Wednesday and made his way to Havana, but his freedom lasted less than 48 hours.

Cuban agents claimed Buchanan was bringing bandages to Young, who hurt his left leg in the escape.

Auto Crashes Into House; 2 Killed

Miami — (AP) — A speeding car catapulted from a highway before dawn today, smashed into a house and killed two sleeping occupants.

A third resident was critically burned in a fire started by bottled gas ignited in the crash.

Investigator Fred Fuqua said the driver, Harold Guthrie, 26, was so drunk he was unaware of the accident. Guthrie's arm was broken and he suffered minor cuts.

The dead were Lee Pembroy, 50, and his 48-year-old wife, Negroes.

Rockefeller for End Of Non-Red Affidavit

Albany, N. Y. — (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller called today for repeal of the non-communist affidavit required by force or violence or by any illegal or unconstitutional methods.

No. 1 is known as loyalty oath, No. 2 as non-communist affidavit. Most criticism has centered on the non-communist affidavit, on the grounds it singles out student applicants to swear they are not inimical to the success of a most important effort to improve educational opportunities in the United States," the governor said.

Rockefeller, a potential candidate for the Republican nomination for president, said last month he felt that college students should be willing to take a loyalty oath if they wanted federal student loans. He reiterated today that the oath should be retained.

He said he had no personal "reservations or objection whatsoever to taking an oath of allegiance to the United States."

Issues Statement
He said he issued the statement to clear up an apparent "widespread misunderstanding" of his position.

Under federal loan program, students must execute:

1. An oath saying "I (John Doe) do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the United States of America and will support and defend the constitution and laws of the United States of America against all its enemies, foreign and domestic."

Assembly Passes Two Tax Proposals

Both Withholding, Alternate Plan Head for Senate Defeat

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Madison — Two alternative tax plans were passed by the Democratic assembly Thursday to go to almost certain defeat in the Republican senate.

For the second time this year, Democrats submitted an income tax withholding plan with the second defeat for it ahead in the senate. The alternate plans were written by Gov. Nelson as stop gap revenue-raisers for about $25,000,000 to balance the current budget.

Bills Passed
Republican leaders have indicated they prefer to wait on revenue-raising bills until next spring, after consideration of the governor's blue ribbon tax policy committee proposals.

Milwaukee Republican Sen. Kirby Hendee has drafted a May 3 recess resolution to introduce in the senate today.

The tax bills as passed by the assembly are:

To provide a withholding system of collecting income taxes to begin in January, 1961; eliminate the 20 per cent surtax on 1960 income; impose a franchise tax on income of financial institutions (banks, savings and loan associations, credit unions), and retain $6,000,000 for school aids before distribution of income tax revenues is made to localities. Drug Probe Turns To Smaller Firms

How Do They Fare, Committee Wants to Know, in Competition With Big Name Brand Producers

Washington — Senate investigators sought to learn today how smaller firms fare in competition with the big producers of name-brand prescription medicines.

The senate antitrust and monopoly subcommittee called Seymour Blackman, secretary-treasurer of the Premo Pharmaceutical Laboratories, Inc., of South Hackensack, N. J., to tell about it.

Rand Dixon, subcommittee counsel, described Premo as "not small, not large, but successful."

He said he plans to explore with Blackman the effect on smaller competitors when the larger companies launch big advertising and promotional

Ban Sale of Some Types Of Poultry

Don't Get Excited, Government Tells Consumer Public

Washington — The government, using a don't-get-excited approach, has announced a ban on sales of poultry fattened with a hormone which can cause cancer.

The hormone is called diethylstilbestrol, or stilbestrol. Its use in fattening poultry

Madison — A University of Wisconsin poultry expert said Thursday night that the high cost involved in giving chickens stilbestrol, a fattening hormone, made it impractical for use in raising fryers and broilers.

Dr. Herbert R. Baird, chairman of the University of Wisconsin poultry department, said that most of the chickens raised in Wisconsin for market are fryers and broilers.

He said that only expensive specialty birds could be given the hormone treatment profitably.

is being discontinued, and birds already grown with its use are being voluntarily taken off the market, it was announced.

But with last month's cranberry scare still echoing, officials gave these added assurances to housewives about stilbestrol-treated poultry:

Safe to Use

If you have a chicken in the refrigerator, feel safe to use it if the skin, liver and kidneys are discarded. No residue of the synthetic hormone has been found in the white or dark meat.

Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming told a news conference yesterday of the voluntary program.

He said authorized manufacturers of stilbestrol for use in poultry have agreed to suspend its sale immediately. The poultry and retail food industries have been asked to arrange for an immediate halt to the sale of stilbestrol-treated birds.

Flemming said he had talked with retail food and poultry representatives and was confident they would suspend sales. Stilbestrol-treated birds are readily identifiable, he added.

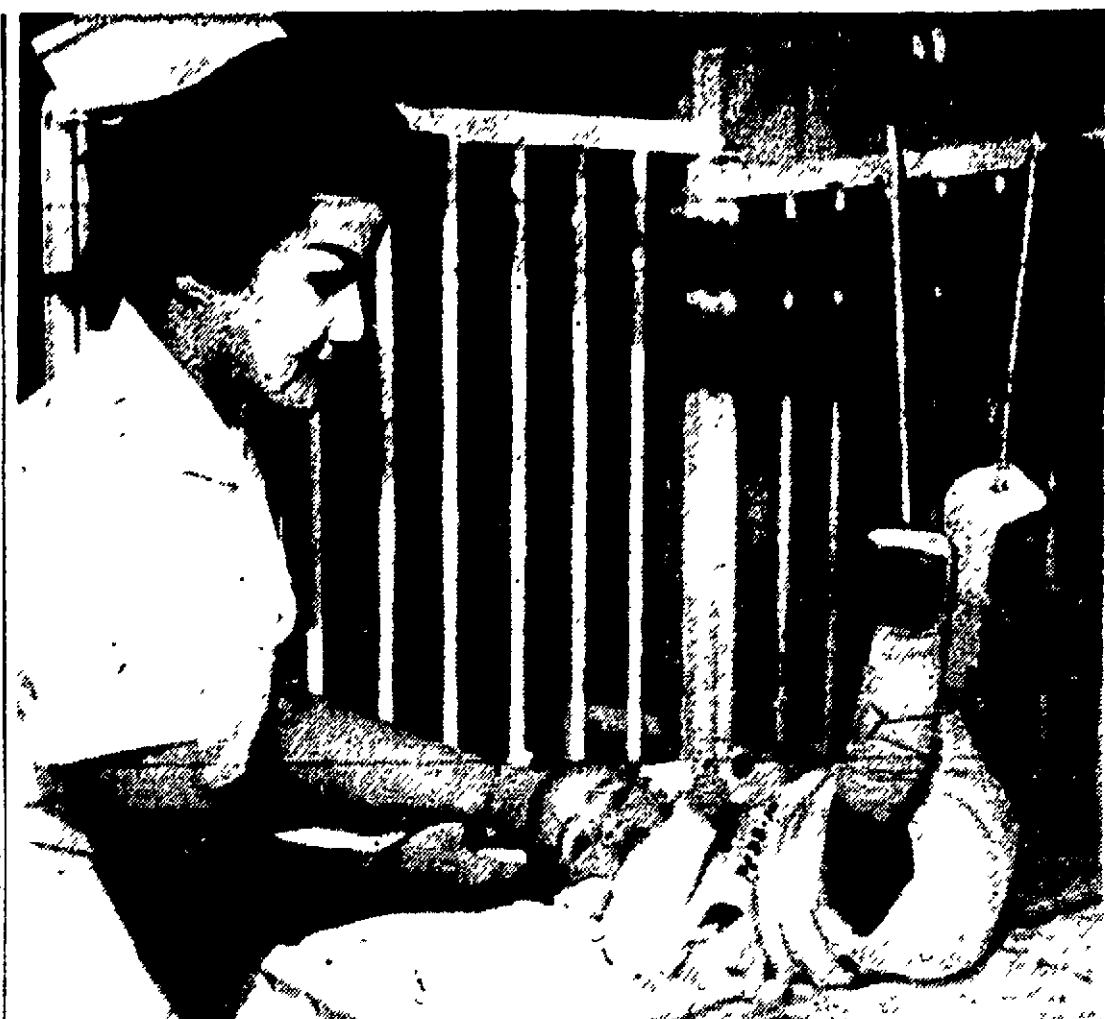

The hormone has been used in only about 1 per cent of the poultry grown in the United States—mostly in birds sold in the New York City and Los Angeles markets.

Long Period

Flemming said stilbestrol induces cancer in test animals when it is fed to them over comparatively long periods of time.

Only minute residues of the hormone have been found in the skins, livers and kidneys of market poultry, he added.

The hormone was cleared by the food and drug administration 12 years ago and has been used to fatten beef as well as poultry. But Flemming said no residues of stilbestrol have been found in beef, mutton or lamb and that the chemical is not used in hogs.

Tony Lee Doyle, 4 months, lies in traction in a navy hospital in San Diego, Calif., with broken arms and legs and fractured ribs. The father, Richard T. Doyle, a navy sailor, is in jail on suspicion of inflicting injury to a child. Nurse Lucinda Kemble attends the infant.

Safety Rope Saves Man In Plunge

Milwaukee — Because of a safety knot, James Randa, 18, averted a 40-foot fall and possible fatal injuries Thursday while repairing bricks on a stock house at a local brewery.

When the scaffolding support gave way, Randa fell the length of a rope attached to his safety cord and then fell a bit more as one part of the double knot gave way. This was an intentional function of the double knot to break some of the force of the drop.

The second knot held and he was hauled back to safety, able to resume work in a half hour.

Vedayne John, an officer of the general contracting firm employing Randa, is a lieutenant colonel in the army reserve and had instituted twice-daily, army-type inspections of all safety equipment used by the men.

Boy, 15, Tells Grisly Details of Killing

Shoots, Stabs Youth; Says He Planned Murder but Will Plead Self Defense

Newark, N. J. — A New Orleans boy nabbed by FBI men here has nonchalantly related the grisly details of how he killed a schoolmate.

Frank Nicholas Chisesi, 15, smiled as he chatted with newsmen after his arrest yesterday.

The slight youth with curly black hair had been hunted in connection with the slaying of Rhett Blanke, also 15, of Violet, La. Blanke was found on a levee of the Mississippi river Tuesday shot and stabbed to death. He was nearly decapitated from the knifing.

Chisesi said he asked Blanke to go hunting with him Tuesday. They had a holiday from the parochial school where they were sophomores.

Chisesi said he intended to kill Blanke because Blanke "aggravated" him at school. But he told reporters, "when I go to court I'm going to plead self defense. I can prove I shot him in self defense."

Just Got Mad

Chisesi said when they got to the hunting ground Blanke "started shooting all the shells up, shooting at my feet."

"I just got mad, took the gun away from him and started shooting at him. Then I stabbed him."

Chisesi said he stabbed Blanke "because he was still breathing. I figure if they're going to hang me, I might as well go ahead. If I'm going to get the death penalty, I might as well do a good job."

Hunters found Blanke about 34 hours after he had left his home. He had been shot in the back and under the chin, apparently at close range, and cut five or six times across the back and neck. His black leather jacket had been pulled off.

"I got a kind of temper," Chisesi told reporters. "I take a lot from people, but when I get mad I get violent."

Man Buys Town for $311,000 in Kansas

DeSoto, Kan. — A man bought a town Thursday, for $311,000.

The town, Sunflower Village, hasn't been in use since the staff of a nearby ordnance works was reduced. But it has 174 homes and 11 other buildings, including a 500-seat theater and a school.

It was bought by Louis H. Ensley who owns Quick Way Homes, Inc. of Lawton, Okla. He was one of eight bidders in the auction conducted by the government's general service administration.

Ensley said he hopes to rehabilitate the village, 25 miles west of Kansas city, medical professions of its and clear lots for more homes.

Violence Erupts Over Japan Repatriation Of Korean Residents

South Opposes Transfer of 5,000 Persons Into Communist Territory

Niigata, Japan — Bitter South Korean opposition to Japan's repatriation of Korean residents to North Korea erupted in violence today.

Hundreds of anti-communist South Koreans battled police and twice delayed trains bringing the first group of Koreans here for final screenings and transfer to Soviet ships sailing next week for North Korea.

Block Trains

Many of the demonstrators sat or flung themselves across railroad tracks in an attempt to block the trains. About 20 persons were injured and 10 arrested during ensuing scuffles with police.

After the tracks finally were cleared, 975 of an expected 1,002 Koreans arrived for processing. They are among about 5,000 in Japan who indicated they would accept North Korea's offer of jobs.

Japan has Korean population of about 600,000. Most were brought in before and during World War II when Korea was under Japanese control.

North Korean officials claim that approximately 137,000 Koreans in Japan eventually will return to North Korea. The figure is widely disputed.

Bitter Opposition

President Syngman Rhee's South Korean government has expressed bitter opposition to the program, charging that it is deportation to red slavery rather than repatriation.

Rhee expressed hope today that "friendly powers" would intervene and halt the program, an obvious reference to the United States, which has adopted a hands-off attitude toward the controversy.

Rhee warned that Japan "will have to face the united anger and resistance of the free Korean people" if the transfers are carried out.

Coleman Mother Saves Three From Burning Farm Home

Post-Crescent News Service

Coleman — Mrs. Ralph Polzin dropped three small children from a second floor window into the arms of neighbors and then jumped to safety when a fire broke out in her farm home three miles southeast of here Thursday.

Mrs. Polzin said she was putting the children, aged 6 months to 5 years, to bed for afternoon naps when she heard an explosion and flames shot through a register in the floor of the bedroom.

A boy, 5, became frightened and ran into the attic. Mrs. Polzin had to go after him. When she returned the flames had spread through the house and blocked passage.

Mrs. Polzin broke a window and screamed. Neighbors who were cutting wood across the broad heard her and caught the children as she dropped them out the window. She then jumped out herself. The children, boys 5 and 11, and a girl 6 months, and their mother were unhurt.

The fire destroyed most of the home and Christmas gifts the family purchased recently. The only thing saved was a desk filled with several boxes of shotgun shells that Polzin who came home from his milk route during the fire, managed to pull from the blazing house.

A faulty gas water heater caused the explosion, fire officials said.

Coleman residents are collecting clothing and other necessities for the family, which spent the night with neighbors. Another girl, 6, was in school when the fire occurred.

This bill had 53 Democratic votes against 44 Republicans.

Drop Proposals
Originally, each bill included a 1-cent increase in the cigarette tax and a tax on tobacco products. These were amended out before passage of the bills.

Whether the recess plan can be achieved is not yet known. A test may come next week. It is reasonably certain, however, that the governor's fiscal scheme will be delayed considerably in the senate, at the least. If the senate does act, it is more likely to be in the direction of income tax rate revision than in favor of the tax withholding device, killed last spring.

Assembly debate was relatively spiritless Thursday, obviously reflecting the realization of members of both parties in the lower chamber that the senate has the veto power in the protracted argument about state tax policy.

Pressure to Cut
Risser sponsored an amendment to delete from the Nelson proposal a higher tax on cigarettes and a 15 per cent tax on other tobacco products, to the relief of some of his rural Democratic colleagues, under heavy pressure to oppose such levies by their tobacco-raising farm constituents in several key areas.

Risser explained that the additional money was not needed, since the legislature had cut Nelson's budget—such as its refusal to grant an additional $2,000,000 in salary raises to state college and university teachers.

Assemblyman Pommerening of Wauwatosa, member of the citizens tax study commission, talked of "fraud and deceit" in the campaign literature of the withholding tax advocates prepared by Robert Moses, a Democratic politician who sat in the gallery during the argument on the floor. He said there is a good chance that the citizens commission will report by spring and that the legislature then can consider basic tax revision, or if that is declined, will have plenty of time to enact the governor's temporary measures or others.

Bank Increase
Republicans scored the administration plan to increase taxes on banks and savings and loan associations, through a franchise tax that will increase the tax on the former about three times and tax the latter for the first time.

Banks have an income tax advantage because much of their income is derived from tax-exempt government securities, Republicans, led by Jerry Leonard of Milwaukee, objected that all other federal security investors have the same advantage.

"How about the insurance companies?" he demanded of Risser. "Are they not included because they came down here to lobby your governor?"

Warren Grady of Ozaukee county protested that the state constitution requires a two-thirds vote on banking legislation, but he was over-ruled by speaker Molinaro, who in turn was sustained by the house on appeal. There is a chance that the point may figure in court challenges later, however, if the banks lose their fight on the tax issue.

Police Bullets Kill 8 Africans in Clash

Windhoek, Southwest Africa—Police bullets killed eight Africans and wounded 30 others in a clash at Windhoek's nonwhite settlement Thursday night.

Eight white policemen were hurt.

The area was reported quiet today.

Maj. J. J. Lombard, acting deputy police commissioner, said thousands of dollars worth of damage was done by rioters who smashed doors and windows and fired buildings. The African community center here was badly damaged.

Lombard said Africans have shown discontent about a proposal to remove them to a new township.

S. J. Wittman, Right, Oshkosh race pilot, and Paul Poberezny, Hales Corners, president of the Experimental Aircraft association, are shown with Wittman's "Bonzo" which will be presented to the association's new aircraft museum at Hales Corners.

Ike Urges All Nations To Enter War on Hunger

dent Rajendra Prasad. In an open horse-drawn coach under a red and gold umbrella.

As the ceremonies ended the sun was sinking and colored lights playing on the stand gave a brilliant glow to Indian dancers in ornate costumes performing before the president.

Eisenhower was praised by Prime Minister Nehru as a great man and a great president.

"You have found yourself in the hearts of my millions," Nehru declared.

Eisenhower cited the "Four-F" theme of the American exhibit at the 14-nation fair—food, family, friendship and freedom.

"Into these four words are compressed the daily needs, high purposes, deep feelings and ageless aspirations that unite Indians and Americans under one banner—the banner of human dignity," the president declared.

Agriculture Great Hope

Eisenhower pledged that America will continue cooperating with India to achieve a world free of hunger in which families can live full, prosperous lives and in which friendship replaces fear and suspicion.

"We see in modern agriculture the most effective instrument for a better life among all men," he said.

Eisenhower told the Indians that he, himself, plans to be a farmer after retiring from "my present form of occupation."

A crowd estimated at 50,000 jammed a big inclosure of brightly striped cloth fences in front of the speaker's stand, which was draped in bright yellow bunting. Thousands more were outside. Some looked on from the roof of the Indian Supreme court building 400 feet away.

An orchestra tinkled a peculiarly Asian accompaniment as girls sang a Sanskrit invocation. Then a song of welcome, which mentioned the American president by name, was sung by 11 girls and 10 boys.

Khrushchev's Message

A fair secretary read a message of good wishes from various countries—including one from Soviet Premier Khrushchev—greeting India upon the opening of the fair.

"From the bottom of my heart I wish the people of India every success in their noble labor in the cause of peace. The organization of this fair is a significant event not only for the people but for international cooperation and mutual understanding among the peoples of the world."

Eisenhower said India and the United States have been working together to solve India's food shortages.

"Whatever strengthens India, my people are convinced, strengthens us, a sister republic dedicated to peace," the president said.

Mighty Influence

"This great nation of 400 million people, rich in culture and history, courageous in the resolve to be free and strong, is a mighty influence for an enduring and just peace in the world."

Thanks to modern science, the president continued, hunger "that emaciates bodies of children, that scars the souls of their parents, that stirs the passions of those who toll endlessly and earn only scraps can be wiped away."

Eisenhower said the displays at the agriculture fair prove that man now has sufficient knowledge to declare all-out war on famine and hunger.

"The call to that genuinely noble war is enunciated in the theme of the American exhibit here," he said.

The president said the $24 million American exhibit is not an attempt to portray American agriculture as superior to that of other countries.

He expressed hope that American farming techniques demonstrated in the American pavilion can be modified to fit India's needs and help increase the output of its farms.

Prime Minister Nehru told Eisenhower "you are a great president in your own right. You are leader of a great nation. But there is something greater than honoring a great man or the leader of a great nation."

Blessing to All

Eisenhower had witnessed two days of popular enthusiasm he explained, and "we honor you, sir, because you have found yourself in the heart of my millions and I hope and believe your coming here will be a blessing to us and a blessing to all."

Nehru said the fair was a good thing because there is no "ideology in agriculture" and it symbolized international cooperation unaffected by ideologies.

"Scientists trying to unravel knots are not affected by ideologies," he went on. "I consider today an auspicious moment not by consulting the stars or astrology but because it represents a good cause."

Eisenhower's packed schedule ranged from inspection of the new $24-million U. S. embassy in the diplomatic quarter on New Delhi's south side to opening of the exhibition.

Cheered by Crowds

Colorful street crowds cheered the president on his rounds. The crowds were orderly in contrast to the wild reception Eisenhower received on his arrival here Wednesday. The motorcade routes also appeared to have been reinforced with police and other security forces.

Accepting an honorary law degree at Delhi university, the president said nations must accept the rule of international law to provide a sound basis for peace.

He suggested, however, three persons could gather in any group in the immediate packing plant area, and no more than 50 in downtown Albert Lea and across the highway from the plant itself.

A portion of the crowd gathered on a nearby bridge hooted and jeered at the non-union workmen showing up at the plant.

Cries of "go home and milk your cows, scab," were heard.

A detachment of guardsmen with fixed bayonets advanced on the group and it melted away.

The group appeared not to be challenging the authority of the guard in any way. In fact when Col. Meyer read that part of the proclamation closing the plant, there were cheers.

Two days of violence at the giant packing plant were touched off Wednesday night when a thousand massed pickets blocked non-union workers from leaving the plant, overturned cars and hurled rocks. Three or four persons received minor injuries.

Workers Stoned

Yesterday the non-union workmen Wilson has been using ran through a rain of that international law needs to be brought up to date with an infusion of the finest traditions of all great legal systems of the world. He said universities could be of tremendous help.

"A reliable framework of law grounded in general principles recognized by civilized nations is of crucial importance in all plans for rapid economic development around the earth," he said.

This was at once a slap at the Soviet Union and a compliment to the Indians. The Russians have persistently declined to submit to arbitration by the international court of justice, but India recently accepted with only a few reservations the principle of the court's jurisdiction—and Eisenhower praised India for this.

rocks both going to work in the morning and going home at night.

Mayor Niles Shoff of Albert Lea and County Atty. O. Russell Olson then appealed to the governor for troops.

The striking United Packinghouse Workers union has been without a contract at Wilson since Sept. 1. Wilson broke off negotiations Oct. 29 when union workers refused to work a 9-hour day.

Two weeks ago Wilson warned union employees they would be replaced if they did not return to work, and on Nov. 30 Wilson began production with non-union help.

Contempt citations were issued against union leaders Wednesday night. Neither the citations nor union leaders' pleas for their men to remain calm checked the ball of rocks and massing of union men at the plant gates.

The guardsmen, some 200 strong, moved quickly to Albert Lea by bus from two nearby cities, Rochester and Mankato. The men were armed with M1 rifles, standard World War II infantry rifle, and bayonets.

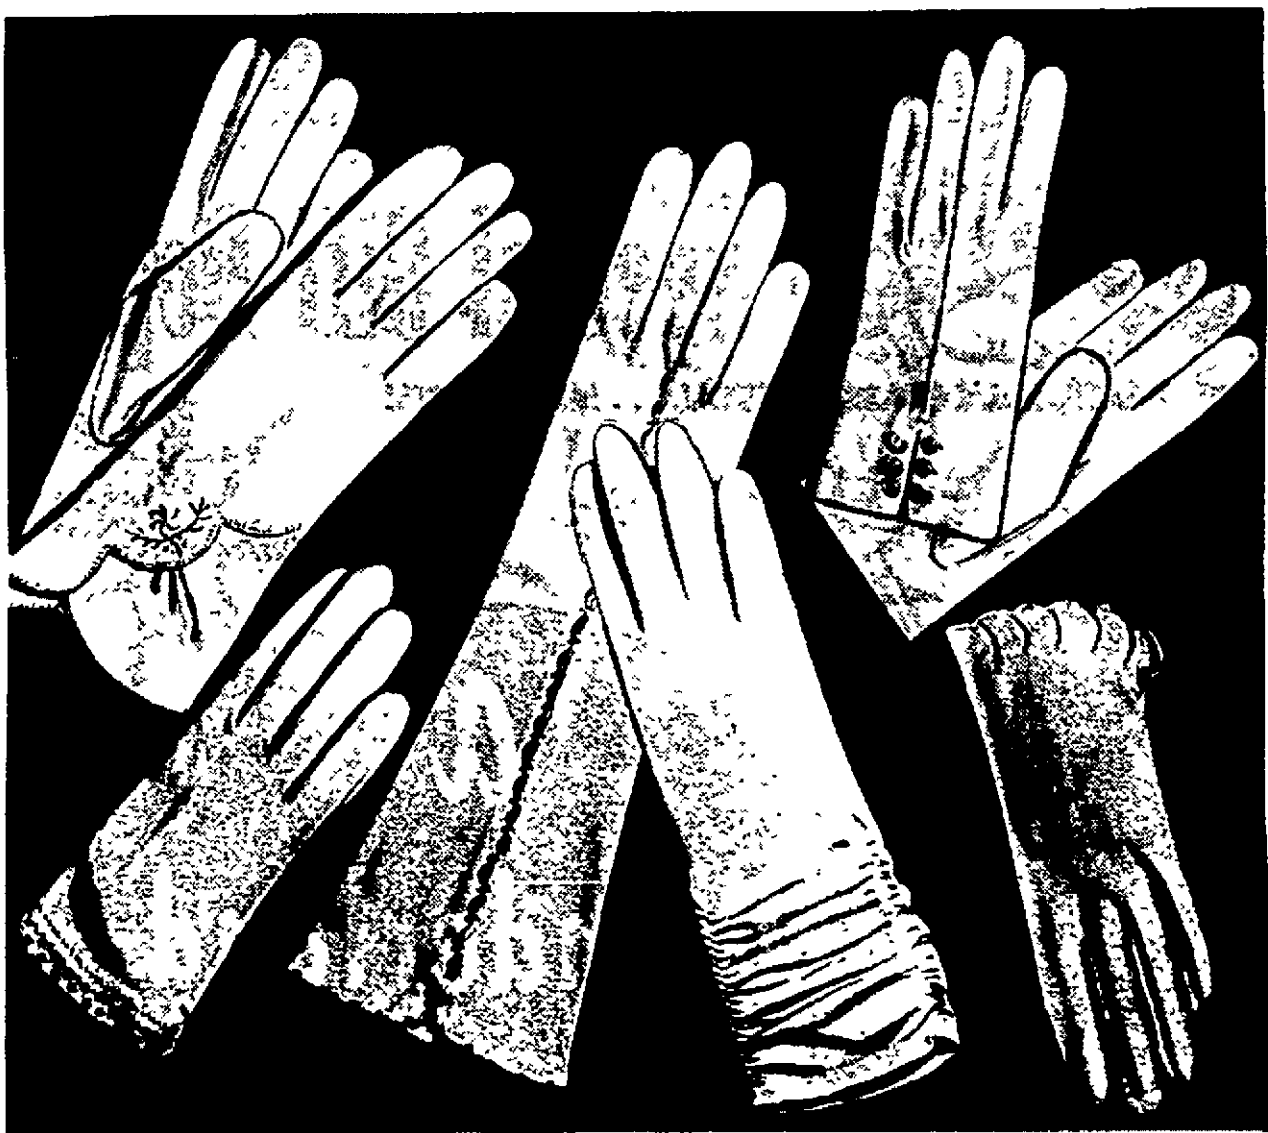

Company Forms Agreement to Serve State Gas

Omaha—Northern Natural Gas company, of Omaha says it has reached an agreement to supply gas for use in the Milwaukee, Madison and Detroit areas.

The agreement, made with Michigan - Wisconsin Pipe Line company, Detroit, is subject to Federal Power commission approval. It calls for the purchase by Michigan-Wisconsin of 75 million cubic feet of natural gas daily from Northern at a point near Janesville. Northern plans to build a 20-inch line from its present terminus at East Dubuque, Ill., to Janesville, a distance of about 80 miles.

Executive Vice President W. A. Strauss of Northern said Thursday both companies will file immediately for power commission approval, hoping to begin service Nov. 1, 1960. Northern presently serves 423 communities in Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, South Dakota and Kansas.

Equality in Tax Treatment

When Gov. Nelson's income tax withholding bill was given a hearing before a legislative committee recently, among the parade of witnesses was a delegation representing the Wisconsin Farmers Union which chorused the argument that wage and salary check deduction for the benefit of the state treasury will improve the accuracy of collections.

The president and the other officers of the farm organization didn't explicitly say so, but they surely meant to convey the idea that the present system of once a year filing of income tax assessments by the taxpayers, subject to the examinations of more than 200 auditors in the state tax department and a cross-check by a considerably larger corps of examiners in the internal revenue service, encourages tax evasion or cheating.

That may be an argument for withholding. Only an expert can tell, and it may be significant that the officers of the state tax department have been quite silent on the matter. It also is worth noting that even Gov. Nelson and his associates, anxious as they are to pass the bill, have not put major reliance upon this argument. They have said that withholding will catch up with some of the transients and non-residents who may not always be dunned successfully under present arrangements.

The 40 et 8

The national office of the American Legion has severed its connections with La Societe des Quarante Hommes et Huit Chevaux, commonly known as the 40 et 8 Society, because of a provision in the society's constitution which limits membership to white persons. The discussion over this clause has been going on for many years but came to a head at the American Legion convention in Minneapolis last August. At that meeting the Legion convention adopted a resolution urging the 40 et 8 to review its discrimination clause.

Since then there apparently have been some communications between Martin B. McKneally, national commander of the Legion, and John Hobbie of Liberal, Kans., the principal officer of the 40 et 8. Hobbie has explained that the 40 et 8 "recognized and accepted the action" and had agreed to take the matter up at the next national convention in October, 1960, at Miami. However, McKneally ended the association of the two organizations declaring that further use of the American Legion emblem and the name "The American Legion" will be in violation of the federal act incorporating the American Legion.

There are reported to be 3,600 members of the 40 et 8 in Wisconsin. In this state, and in fact in the entire northern section of the country, the white clause in the 40 et 8 constitution has never been an important issue. There are very few colored persons in the area and it is quite likely many of them who are otherwise eligible for the 40

But the assertion strikes us as coming with notably poor grace from an organization of taxpayers that will be exempt from the pre-payment provisions of this suggested law.

The farmer under the governor's bill will continue to pay his state taxes once a year, as he does under the existing law.

Are the Farmers Union members saying that the only persons filing careless or dishonest returns are those living off the farm?

If withholding has all the advantages and the virtues attributed to it by the eager publicists of the state administration, there would seem to be no insuperable reason why it should not be all-inclusive and cover the farmer as well as his city cousin. Surely the farmer would find it no more difficult to estimate his liability and to pay quarterly than the small businessman, or the self-employed professional man or craftsman in the city.

To say that the state act follows the farmer exemption pattern of the federal law is to beg the question. Why should the farmer be exempt from either system, if the gains are as commanding as claimed, except that perhaps the present state regime is as anxious to avoid antagonizing the rural vote as the Congress was when the federal withholding system was enacted?

et 8 Society might well have been admitted without anyone being aware of the violation of the organization's rules.

In this area, the 40 et 8 has been largely a fun making organization and the principal test for membership has been the performance of some service for the American Legion. Thus most of the 3,600 members are former Legion officials, former successful membership campaign chairmen or others who have performed important service to the American Legion or have otherwise come into prominence. It is difficult to see how the 40 et 8 Society could exist without some sort of affiliation with the American Legion. This is true because the 40 et 8 has practically no reason for being or no test for membership other than service to the American Legion.

We have no doubt that most members of the 40 et 8 Society, in this area are opposed to the "white only" clause in the constitution but have continued in the society in the hopes of bringing about amendment to the rules on that point in due time.

Now that the matter has been brought to a head we hope the leaders of the 40 et 8 Society will take a stand against the "white only" clause and make their stand known to the national leaders of the organization. Prompt action now might bring about the desired change at the Miami convention next year and restore the 40 et 8 Society to its proper place in working for the American Legion.

Blind in One Eye

It is regrettable that the Department of Public Instruction found occasion to oppose a recent amendment offered by Gov. Nelson's office to the bill requiring all school districts to be part of high school districts by 1962. The amendment would have given cities something to say about the attachments.

Very likely the supposed lure of attendance or attachment to city school systems has been overemphasized by city officials in many areas. Residents of unattached areas have given very little indication of an overwhelming desire to join city districts. On the high school level, these rural residents seem quite content to have no say in school policies and offer tuition payments. On the other hand, they fiercely resent any attempt to take away from them control and management of their elementary schools. Cities that insist upon annexation rather than attachment for school purposes have seldom found many takers.

But the Department of Public Instruction's argument that education must not get in the middle or be used as a lever to force annexation is blind to the very real fact that the schools cannot be isolated from the problems of the community as a whole. Cities which are forced to accept, either by annexation or attachment for school purposes, large areas of low valuation and many students, are going to have higher taxes. There is a saturation point, and insistence upon such consolidation can mean poorer school opportunities for everyone, exactly the opposite from what the Department of Public Instruction wants.

School taxes are earmarked for school purposes only but they have to be considered with other taxes and with community health in general. Thus, while it is not all of the cause of the teacher squabble in La Crosse, there is something in the council's objection to higher salaries when the tax base is dwindling through the loss of industry. The same sort of thing was mentioned when the Joint Finance Committee turned down part of the request of the regents of the university and state colleges for increases in teacher salaries. There is no doubt that Wisconsin should pay more in competition with neighboring states, particularly to those teachers in the higher echelons, but how far can raises go if farm income is down?

Apparently there was a misunderstanding between the Department of Public Instruction and Gov. Nelson's office. It is otherwise difficult to see why he would have signed the original bill and then offered an amendment. The pressure for consolidated high school districts is unnecessary at this time. But the very least that should be done is to give the cities some say in the means of attachment.

Airports Spring Up Where Demand Develops for Them

From The Wisconsin Tax News

While the pilot looking for a spot to make an emergency landing might say otherwise, in Wisconsin airports have a way of happening to be wherever there is sufficient demand for them.

If that is not the case, what is the reason for there being five public airports in Vilas county while in more than 25 per cent of the counties there are none?

And if they do spring up where there is a demand for them, why should the state government support an agency — the state aeronautics commission — whose function is to promote the developments of airports?

The state certainly doesn't need the aeronautics commission for a policing or regulatory agency because in that field it would be interfering with the federal authorities.

Local sponsors of airports don't need the aeronautics commission either but are forced to use it if they want to deal with the federal authorities for federal aid.

They would be able to deal with the federal authorities directly if there wasn't an aeronautics commission, however. It's just that the federal government says it has to be used if it is there. If it were to be abolished the door to the federal treasury would not be locked.

It might also be noted that if the aeronautics commission were abolished the taxpayers would be saved the cost of supporting it. In fiscal year 1961 it is scheduled to cost $89,301 in administration expenses compared with $5,151 in fiscal 1951. It seems that the more airports there are promoted the more expensive they get to promote.

Misleading Impression Given By Sermon Story and Subhead

Editor, Post-Crescent:

Tuesday you graciously ran a column reporting on my sermon at Faith church last Sunday. Unfortunately a portion of the writeup, and especially the subheading, was extremely misleading.

Many people who read the subheading — "Eternal Damnation Only Certainty," Rev. Simon says "may have received a wrong impression, strengthened by the quotation in the second paragraph — "Man can only be sure of eternity if by eternity he means eternal damnation. All man needs to do is not believe in Christ."

It is understandable how your headline writer, taking his cue from this paragraph, would arrive at the misleading headline. In order to clarify this matter and to demonstrate that Christianity is not fatalism but a religion of joy, hope and assurance and that Faith church thus presents it, I would ask you to print the following additional portion of my sermon which includes and explains the quoted paragraph. I would respectfully ask that you give this explanation the same prominence you so generously gave the original writeup.

The title of the sermon was — "How to Make Eternity Sure." Following are several of the opening paragraphs:

"At the outset we must remind ourselves that this business of eternity is God's department, as is everything else. Man can be sure of eternity without God alright, if by eternity you mean eternal damnation. All man needs to do is not believe in Christ. 'He that believeth not shall be damned' — you couldn't find a plainer Bible truth than that one.

"But certainly none of us wants to be sure of that kind of eternity: it is rather our fear of eternal damnation that makes us seek hope and assurance that the other eternity, eternal life with God in heaven, this may be assured us. How can this take place?

"Eternal life starts with God. Our text tells us that God in His 'divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness.' All the things that have to do with our godly life here on earth, all the things that have to do with our eternal life here and in heaven, those are gifts from God. And they are given us thru the 'knowledge of Him that hath called us' — namely thru Jesus Christ.

"Our assurance of eternity must begin with Jesus Christ — Jesus Christ who lived for us and died to save us, and who has called us, working in our hearts the miracle of leading us to know and love Him.

"But He who has brought us this far, isn't stopping. 'He who hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ.' And so our text reminds that thru Jesus and His calling us 'are given to us great and precious promises' — the promises of His Word that if we believe in the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, His promises that in Christ 'we have redemption thru His blood, even the forgiveness of sins', His promises that if we are faithful unto death, He will give us the crown of life! Oh, great and precious indeed are these and the hundreds of ever-true passages of comfort and assurance with which God has blessed us."

May I state that I do not intend this correspondence to be an unkind criticism of your writer. We all make mistakes. It is perhaps rather surprising that such misunderstandings do not occur more frequently. It has always seemed to me that the man who has the job of writing up a sermon for the newspaper has one of the more difficult assignments in his field. Surely your man tries hard and often does a good job.

Looking Backward

Cheesemaking Good Business

79 YEARS AGO

Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for the week of Dec. 11, 1880.

The German bank of Sheboygan already has paid out this season for the single article of cheese, about $380,000 and its Falls branch about $200,000 more. There is still a large quantity of cheese in the county which will go forward in the course of this month.

And a well posted gentleman tells us in Appleton that the unsold quantity will bring $200,000 more. In the face of these facts, why is it that so many farmers of Outagamie county continue to rely solely on raising wheat and other grain?

One-third of the farmers in this county still have their farms encumbered with mortgages. Five years of stock raising and the production of butter and cheese would leave them freemen, financially, with money in the bank. The same time devoted to grain raising will leave them free from mortgage but with impoverished soil and dilapidated buildings.

25 YEARS AGO

The LaFollette brothers of Wisconsin, senator and governor-elect, paid a flying visit to Washington to have lunch with President Roosevelt and to discuss Wisconsin relief problems with Federal Director Harry L. Hopkins.

George H. Schmidt was chosen to head Knights of Pythias lodge as chancellor commander. George Krueger was elected vice chancellor.

For the third time in 72 hours, the mercury reached a new low for the season recording five above zero shortly before dawn this morning.

W. E. Smith was elected worshipful master of Waverly lodge, No. 51. Free and Accepted Masons, Ervin Grundeman was chosen senior warden, Frank Younger, junior warden, William Rooks, treasurer, and John Q. Hansen, secretary.

Congressman Reuss Disappoints Friends

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

Madison — State politics pot-pourri:

Many of the friends of Rep. Henry Reuss of Milwaukee were astonished and disappointed at his decision to give up a promising career in the congress for the chance to become mayor of Milwaukee.

Some capitol wits are amused that the Democratic state administration which has been exploiting its demands for more north-south roads is now being confronted by a demand from Superior for a new east-west road in that neighborhood.

The Wisconsin Press Association, the oldest trade group of its kind in the country, has blossomed out with a new magazine devoted to Wisconsin journalism. Robert Moses, the major domo of the withholding tax campaign, is not being paid by the state or by the Democratic party organization, but who is paying his bills is a minor mystery. Harold Plummer, who will retire as chairman of the state highway commission on Dec. 31, is mulling a couple of job offers. He does not intend to be idle, he has told friends.

PROGRESS

Democratic insiders in Wisconsin are hopeful that their campaign to make Nelson the keynoter at the Democratic national convention in Los Angeles is making gains.

Victor A. Johnston, former Wisconsin Republican politician, accompanied newly elected Sen. Hiram Fong of Hawaii on his triumphant tour of the Far East recently and reports enormous response to the new senator who is of Chinese descent. Johnston now is the director of the Republican senatorial campaign committee in Washington.

Mrs. Glenn Wise, the only woman who ever served Wisconsin as a state constitutional officer, is returning to the political wars as an officer of the Nixon for president campaign now being organized here. She has been relatively inactive since she was defeated for renomination for secretary of state by Robert C. Zimmerman three years ago. The Republican state committee is gradually increasing the distribution of its hard-hitting weekly newsletter, prepared by Philip Sellinger. The Democratic state publicity organ is now actively soliciting financial support in the way of advertising from business firms throughout the state.

Milwaukee Democrats report that a part of State Sen. Henry Maier's strategy in the mayoralty campaign is to persuade backers of Gov. Nelson that Rep. Reuss, his chief rival, may one day run against Nelson for statewide office if he becomes mayor.

Those who doubt that a big city mayor in Wisconsin could run successfully for statewide office are reminded that Sen. Humphrey of Minnesota vaulted into the senate from the Minneapolis city hall. There is yet no sign of a Republican candidate for congressman in the Ninth congressional district, Democrat Lester Johnson, incumbent. University of Wisconsin faculty members may be annoyed by legislative resistance to their salary aspirations, but they shouldn't be surprised. They were tipped off by their officers.

Conspicuous absentees at the recent testimonial and campaign kick-off dinner for Gov. Nelson: Sen. Proxmire and Herman Jensen, Democratic national committeeman. Nominee of many gallery observers for the most rapidly improving of the younger leaders in the legislature, Jerris Leonard, Milwaukee Republican assemblyman. Sen. Kirby Hendee of Milwaukee has just about decided to run for congressman in the northern district of the county. This correspondent the other day proved the old adage that a judge is a lawyer who knew a governor. Bumping into a half dozen men in a Milwaukee hotel lobby whom he formerly knew as politicians, he discovered they were attending a convention of county judges.

Some of the principal state agricultural organizations that were relied upon by Democrats to support their commodity marketing order bill have got behind a milder substitute brought in by Sen. Leverich of Monroe county. Chances are that the substitute won't pass either and that the whole controversy will be referred to an interim committee for "study", as the legislators euphemistically put it.

New Drug May End Nuisance Skin Diseases

From The Orlando Evening Star

The announcement from Miami that a new antibiotic has been discovered which has brought almost miraculous cures of skin diseases will be welcome news. Although the skin irritations on which it has been used rarely prove fatal, they make life miserable and produce much suffering.

However, the drug, griseofulvin, which is administered in pill form, did save a Miami resident who was slowly dying from a skin disease. And it was his doctor's courage to administer the drug — which up to then had been used on animals only — that took the medicine out of the test tubes and put it on the drugstore counters, under the trade name of grifulvin.

Such annoying irritations as athlete's foot, ringworm, the notorious "junglerot", which so many of the GI's contracted during World War II, as well as plant fungi, are reported to clear up readily under its use.

'Inside Shelly Berman' Stands Alone in Field

Most Comics Today Not So Funny
On Recordings, Material Old Stuff

BY HUGH MULLIGAN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Radio bred a flock of first rate comedians like Jack Benny, Fred Allen and Fibber McGee and Molly who hypnotized vast unseen audiences for decades with the wit and wisdom of the spoken word.

Given the same ingredients — the comic, the microphone and the vast unseen audience — the recording field has been unable to duplicate radio's success in amusing the home listener.

Of course the element of immediacy is missing. A comedy monologue on record lacks the freshness of a live radio show, but if the material is good, there is a compensating gain in the realm of permanency. The record fan can hear his favorite comedy routine over again whenever he pleases.

Verve's "Inside Shelly Berman" ably demonstrates what a comedy album can do, but it is a rare exception.

A best seller for more than six months, the Berman album is now in second place on most sales charts and the lone comedy item among the entire top 50 selling albums.

Why? The answer seems simple. The album presents a fresh talent with fresh material, something that most of the other comedy albums fail to realize.

Witness Epic's "Phil Foster at Grossinger." Foster, a run of the mill nightclub comic, had one socko routine that involved a typical Dodge fan at Ebbets Field.

Stale As Old Popcorn

When the Dodgers went west, they took Foster's act with them and dropped it somewhere over the Grand Canyon. Or if they didn't, they should have. It's staler than last season's popcorn now.

Foster repeats the routine on his album, but his heart isn't in it any more. And neither are the laughs. The remainder of his material is even more tragic.

Warner Brothers' "Spike Jones in Hi Fi — A Spook-tacular in Screaming Sound" is probably the worst album of the year, which is saying a lot for a year that also produced Fabian.

With Paul Frees doing somewhat recognizable imitations of Ralph Edwards, Peter Lorre, Alfred Hitchcock and Boris Karloff, the album attempts to find some humor in the horror movie trend.

Ripe For Spoofing

This is a field that is ripe for spoofing, but the best that Spike Jones and his crew can manage are tried, tiresome puns of unbelievable naivete: "This is Your Death," "Music From the Coconut Grave" and, oh well, charity prevents citing any more.

Corals' "The Three Stooges Nonsense Songbook" revives such nonsense ditties of another decade as "Mairzy Doats," "Aba Daba Honeymoon" and "Chickery Chick." Don't ask why. Despite the insane nature of the material, the album should prove popular with children.

The Three Stooges, making a comeback by way of old movies, are in a class by themselves as slapstick comedians, but their appeal is necessarily visual. They aren't funny on records, but surprisingly they can sing.

"Leave It to Jane"

Strand's "Leave It to Jane" is an original cast album of the off-Broadway revival of the show of the same name, a 1917 musical by Jerome Kern, Guy Bolton and P. G. Wodehouse.

As in the case of "The Boy Friend," tongue-in-cheek nostalgia accounts for the charm and humor of this excellent revival, but the endearing qualities are essentially visual and fail to come across on the album.

Crosby Brothers to Resume Act in Florida

Hollywood — The four Crosby brothers will put their singing act together again in January, says Lindsay Crosby.

Bing's sons broke up their act in Montreal last week and canceled an engagement at Palm Springs. Lindsay denied they were feuding. He conceded they had a "beef in Canada, but nothing serious."

He said the reason for tonight's cancellation is that Gary, oldest of the four, has a throat ailment. The brothers plan to open in Miami Beach, Fla., in January, he said.

knob marked "On-Off" when programs fail to please.

I don't know how many concerts, lectures, films and plays the average American attends in the course of the year. I do know that any one of us, by planning ahead and by being selective in our choices of programs, can see more high caliber entertainment right in our own homes than we ever dreamed of.

Without refreshing my memory, these are some of the finer things I've seen in the past 10 weeks; two concerts Zsa Zsa.

by the New York Philharmonic; several Telephone Hour concerts; two original musical comedies; special programs featuring the music of such composers as Gershwin and Jerome Kern; Beethoven's opera, "Fidelio," "Our Town," "Winter set," an adaptation of "Don Quixote"; new versions of any number of hit movies; two biographical treatments of great Americans, and special performances by stars ranging alphabetically from Astaire to Zsa Zsa.

"We Serve to Serve Again"

Island Work Area Provides Space in Modern Kitchen

Sometimes Used as Room Divider Or Step-Saving Serving Counter

Island work centers with plenty of storage and counter space are helping busy homemakers gain the "elbow room" necessary for preparing meals in today's multi-purpose kitchen.

With modern planners making the kitchen a "living" part of the home rather than an isolated shut-off room, the trend is to more spaciousness. The dining area, laundry and family room are now often grouped into a closely integrated center with insulating glass walls to provide ample daylight and restful working conditions for the housewife.

Although this new design idea has increased actual overall floor area, it has become increasingly important to provide enough work space to prepare food and store equipment, especially since existing counters and shelves must be shared with activities going on in the adjoining areas.

In the "traditional" small-windowed kitchen of a few years ago, as much as 65 per cent of valuable outside wall space was being taken up with floor-to-ceiling cupboards. But now that much of this area is being transformed into a light-giving glass wall, often completely enclosed with sliding windows, storage is being more conveniently placed below waist-high counters under the window and in free-standing island units.

Work Centers

These modern work centers which can be compared to the familiar "kitchen table" of grandmother's day, are becoming the focal point for everyday chores ranging from a stand-up snack bar to a handy place to deposit armloads of heavy groceries. Where the overall area includes a family room, the island work center can also double as a room divider and step-saving serving counter. The location of the "island" is an important consideration in gaining its full worth in the efficient planning of a kitchen.

Since its objective is to provide plenty of space to spread out the array of pots, pans and portable electric utensils used in preparing a meal, it should be placed in close relation to other often-used appliances such as the stove and refrigerator. This helps to greatly minimize the steps required in daily work.

Size Will Vary

The size of the custom designed work center will vary according to the room and the requirements of the individual housewife. Some types are completely outfitted with a sink, electrical outlets and even a built-in oven or range. Other more simply-constructed styles can easily be made by the home handyman.

An island work center adds immeasurably to the relief of storage and work space problems in new and remodeled kitchens.

Being only waist-high, it does not interrupt the feeling of spaciousness in the room, and gives wives a chance to enjoy the relaxing view through the window walls.

An Island Work Center is the solution to storage and working space problems in this multi-purpose "living kitchen." It provides a convenient place for cooking and serving, while its low silhouette gives the housewife a chance to enjoy the relaxing view through the window wall.

Don't Let Yule Lights Distract

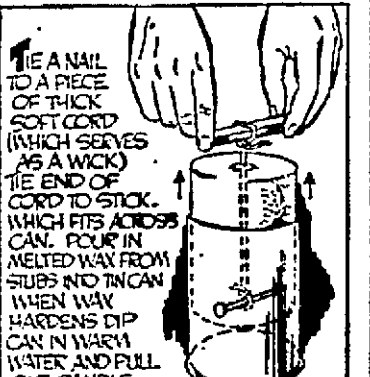

While out Christmas-shopping, don't let your attention be distracted when you're at the wheel of a moving car, warns the state motor vehicle department.

The red and green lights on the traffic signal post are more important than the red and green decorations that beautify your city this month. On slippery pavement, start stopping sooner, and lengthen the distance between your car and the one ahead.

Here's the Answer

QUESTION: Can you tell me something about those little fiber plugs that are used in walls as anchors for screws? I have no trouble with them when using them in a solid wall, such as masonry. But whenever I use one in a plaster wall, it slips back into the wall when I attempt to drive a screw into it. How can this be prevented?

ANSWER: The type of fiber plug you mean can be used in almost any kind of wall, including plaster, although it is easier to handle when it is being placed in a hole made in a wall thicker than the length of the plug. In thin plaster walls, it's a good idea to place the screw through the hole of the object being fastened. Drive the screw into the end of the plug the tiniest bit — two or three turns at the most. Then place the plug into the hole in the plaster and complete the fastening. Since the plug will be attached to the screw, it can't fall back into the wall. Another way to attach something to a plaster wall is with a toggle bolt — which has a wing-like spread that grips the back of the wall after it passes through.

QUESTION: Can lacquer be used in a sprayer? Or is it necessary to brush it on?

ANSWER: The best finishing jobs with lacquer are done by spraying. In purchasing lacquer, ask for spraying lacquer or brushing lacquer, depending on how you are using it.

QUESTION: I am thinking of using squares of striated plywood for the walls of a room in the attic. Can these squares be stained?

ANSWER: Yes. For a striking decorative effect, every other square can be stained a different shade. It's much easier to do this before the squares are attached.

Trees Make Excellent Mulch

Many Gardeners Put Needles Under, Around Plants

Christmas trees make excellent acid mulch and, what's more, they can be had free for the hauling right after Christmas. All plant residues make valuable compost and mulch, points out an article in the January issue of a gardening magazine, and Christmas trees are no exception. Besides using your own tree, you can also get a large supply from local Christmas tree dealers.

It only takes a short time to cut branches from the trunks, which then can be used as stakes in next year's garden for pole beans, tomatoes and climbing peas.

A mulch made of evergreen needles should be about three inches deep spread directly around and under the plant. It will also give you a soil pH of four to five for the following plants: azaleas, Clintonia, andromeda, bunchberry, wild calla lily, camellia, chain fern, Potentilla tridentata, crowberry, Hartford fern, venus flytrap, galax, goldthread, holly, cubeseed and vernal iris, kalmia, scrub oak, rose pogonia, Appalachian and lobed spleenwort, sweet bay, painted trillium and most wild orchids.

If you need an acid mulch, or compost this is the time of year to put in a good supply. Contact your local Christmas tree dealer and offer to take all his unsold trees off his hands — two days after Christmas.

Radiant Panel Heating Proves Popular Item

System Concealed In Floors, Walls; Cite Fuel Economy

Few innovations in home building have created as much interest as radiant panel heating.

The popularity of this method of heating is due to its many physiological, decorative, and economic advantages.

The system is completely concealed. Heated water is circulated through pipe coils installed in the floor, walls, or ceiling making the entire area a radiant surface.

Radiant rays from the panels warm the room and the objects in it either directly or by reflection and re-radiation from one surface to another. The warm floors and draftless condition in radiant heated rooms contribute materially to comfortable, healthful living.

Not Expensive Radiant panel heating is not expensive to install and is famous for fuel economy, says the Plumbing-Heating-Cooling Information Bureau. The mild, gentle warmth given off by the panels does not create strong air currents to stir up dust. Hence walls, ceilings, and draperies stay bright and clean much longer.

In the case of all heating equipment, correct installation is important for comfort and fuel economy. This is particularly important in panel heating. With the pipe coils concealed in the floor, walls, or ceiling, the system must be right in the first place. Obviously any changes or corrections would be very inconvenient and expensive.

Experienced plumbing and heating contractors know how to design and install panel heating systems that will operate efficiently and economically.

Migration Urged for U. S. Negro Baptists

San Francisco — The president of the 5-million-member National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., is urging American Negro Baptists to become "Christian colonists" in Africa.

Dr. Joseph H. Jackson, Chicago, proposes that American Negroes skilled in such fields as farming, medicine, migrate to Liberia and Ghana and become citizens of the African republics.

Dr. Jackson says the convention, which claims to be the largest Negro church organization in the world, is prepared to finance transportation and purchase of land for the emigrants.

Council Will Sponsor Party For Children

Santa's workshop, in the Lawrence Memorial union, will be visited by Oneida Indian children Saturday afternoon for their annual Christmas party sponsored by the college's junior pan-hellenic council.

Pledges of the six Greek sororities on campus, headed by Barbara Larson, 1029 N. Owaissa street, are making the party arrangements. Committee chairmen include Yvonne Haquet, Milwaukee, publicity; Marjorie Middleton, Long Island, N.Y., gifts; Jean Bezoier, Rochester, Minn., recreation; Joann Brown, Holland, Mich., refreshments; Susan Blohm, Hopkins, Minn., decorations; and Miss Larson, transportation and invitations.

Joan Gilbert Plays Recital

Joan Gilbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Gilbert, 1033 E. Eldorado street, participated in a student recital Wednesday at Oberlin college where she is a senior. Joan, a cello major, played Brahms' sonata in E minor, opus 38.

Pledges Entertain Alumnae

Kappa Alpha Theta alumnae group was entertained at a Christmas tea at Coleman hall by the new pledges of the sorority. Co-chairmen were Carla Struck and Jill Grande. Entertainment was provided by Miss Grande and Liz Cole. On Monday the group held its Christmas supper at the home of Mrs. Richard Thickens, Menasha. Homemade ornaments were auctioned with the proceeds going to the Institute of Logopedics in Wichita, Kan. Mrs. Frank Guthrie was the auctioneer.

Delegates named to the June convention in Coronado, Calif., were Mrs. Owen Kuehnsted and Mrs. Donald Laflin, alternate from Neenah. The committee appointed to revise the by-laws includes Mrs. John Greene, Mrs. Laflin and Mrs. George Santa III. The supper-committee is comprised of Mrs. George Tarter, Mrs. James McKenney, Mrs. Robert McDougall, Mrs. Arthur Remley and Mrs. John Schmerein.

Committee Plans Christmas Formal

Stained glass windows and Christmas trees will transform the Riverview lounge of the Memorial union into a warm, colorful old-fashioned living room for Lawrence college's annual Christmas formal Saturday evening.

Among the traditional decorations will be a souvenir-hunters' tree, loaded with red and gold ornaments designed to be taken home by the dancers as mementos. Two orchestras will furnish music, one in the Riverview lounge, the other in the Viking room.

Social committee heads for the event are Ann De Long, Grinnell, Iowa, and Gretchen Affeldt, Kasson, Minn. Their assistants include Brenda Brady, Neenah, and Nancy Watkins, Edwards, Calif., in charge of decorations; Bronte Carpenter, Little Rock, Ark., chaperones; Carol Oelke, Iron Ridge, publicity; and Donald Nelson, Park Forest, Ill., clean-up.

Church Group Hears Program On Holy Land

The Missionary society of Zion Lutheran church held its annual Christmas party Wednesday evening at the school hall. A gift exchange followed the dessert and members and guests were welcomed by Mrs. Hillard Weiss, president.

Guest speaker was the Rev. D. M. Olson, Middleton, who gave an illustrated lecture on his trip to the Holy Land last summer. Musical selections were presented by Mrs. John Tornow and Mrs. Kenneth Sager and hostess committee co-chairmen were Mmes. George Butth, W. H. Gammelin and Clarence Dhein.

Christmas projects of the missionary society, are the church's Good Samaritan fund, shut-ins and servicemen from the congregation, the Lutheran children's home at Waverly, Iowa, and a foster child.

A guest tea and program will be held Jan. 13.

Neighborhood Plans Annual Holiday Party

The Gillett-Highland neighborhood Christmas party will be held Sunday around the community tree on N. Nicholas street. The children's party will begin at 4:30 p.m. with a visit from Santa. Adults will have a dinner dance at 6:30 p.m. at the Odd Fellows hall. Mrs. Robert Bichel is chairman.

Department to Fete Students

German language students at Lawrence college will be entertained at a Christmas party sponsored by the department of German at 3 p.m. Saturday in the Terrace room of the Memorial union. The festivities will include community singing, recordings of a Christmas oratorio and a description of German holiday traditions by Wolfgang Butzkamm, an exchange student from Hagen, Germany. Refreshments will be served.

Appleton Jaycettes Hold Holiday Party

Appleton Jaycettes held their Christmas dinner meeting at the Elks club Monday evening. Hostesses were Mmes. Ralph McHugh, chairman, Jean Revell, Orville Buhl and Richard Schuchart. Guests attending were Mmes. Gene Eacret, Richard Vande Liest, Donald Allinger, Jack Fielkow, Harvey Ader and Donald Schultz.

A report was given by Mrs. Robert Knapp, state Carol award chairman, on the mid-year convention held in Fond du Lac Friday and Saturday. Local Jaycettes attending were Mmes. Donald Smith, Frederick Freyberg, Richard Pruett, William Selle, Dennis Herrling, Jerry Thiel Revell and McHugh.

Mrs. Schuchart chairman, announced that the Jaycettes will sell cookies, candies, candles and calendars at the Christmas sale to be held Friday and Saturday at the Wisconsin Michigan Power company.

A family potluck Christmas party will be held Sunday at the Masonic temple. Entertainment will include community singing a ventriloquist act and the appearance of Santa Claus.

Christmas favors for the hospital trays will be made by Mmes. McHugh, Clifford Rondou, Robert Wilms, James Murphy, Allan Fraser, Revell and Smith.

An orientation meeting was held recently by the officers and directors at the home of Mrs. George Savage for new Jaycette members. Her committee included Mmes. McHugh, Roger Dieball, Norbert Ohm, Ray Ulman, Richard Deirl and Phil Schwarz.

The next meeting will be held Jan. 4 at the Elks club. Guest speaker will be Dr. student from Hagen, Germany. Refreshments will be served.

OES Chapter Elects Officers

Mrs. Rudolf Richter was elected worthy matron of the newly chartered O. E. S. chapter 94, Order of the Eastern Star, at its meeting Wednesday evening at the Masonic temple. Florian Heinrich was elected worthy patron.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Harold Podzilni, associate matron; Ludwig Schink, associate patron; Mrs. Norman Johnson, conductress; Mrs. Spyro Gostas, associate conductress; Mrs. Schink, secretary; Mrs. Leon Leey, treasurer, and Mrs. Harry Brinker, trustee.

Installation of officers will be held Jan. 13 at the Masonic temple and will be preceded by a 6:30 dinner.

Auxiliary Votes Pledge Payment

The Appleton Memorial hospital auxiliary voted to pay $12,500 on its hospital pledge at its board meeting held Thursday morning. The payment will be made by Mrs. Mel Knoke, president, at a hospital meeting Tuesday.

Miss Joyce Trow

Dec. 26 Rites Planned by Miss Joyce Trow

The engagement of Miss Joyce Trow to John Keeling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Keeling, Beloit, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Trow, Freedom.

Miss Trow attended Whitewater State college and is employed by Franklin MacVeagh and company of Elm Grove, Ill. Her fiancé was graduated from the same school and now is serving in the army.

Freedom Moravian church will be the setting for the Dec. 26 wedding.

MMM Club Will Hang Decorations

The "Hanging of the Greens" Christmas party of the MMM club of First Methodist church will be Saturday evening at the church. Art Jepson is in charge of decorations and is being assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gale, George Rupright and Mrs. Gordon Armbruster.

The refreshment committee includes Mrs. Rupright, Mrs. Jepson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ruth and Mrs. Art Benson. Gordon Armbruster is in charge of entertainment and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nissen are handling advertising.

The reception committee is headed by Mr. and Mrs. Gale and Arthur Benson is in charge of publicity.

The member calling committee includes Mrs. Armbruster, Mrs. Ruth, Mrs. Benson, Mrs. Orville Lehman, Mrs. Archie Johnson and Mrs. Charles Scribner.

Mothers' Club

The Franklin school Mothers' club will attend a program at the school Tuesday. Choir members and students will present the program and mothers will bring food for Christmas baskets.

DCCW Investigates Information Posts

Miss Marie Haag and Mrs. C. Jarvis Miller, Neenah, were named members of a committee to investigate the possibility of starting Catholic Information centers in cities having over 25,000 population at a recent board meeting of the Green Bay Diocesan council of Catholic Women. The group met at St. John the Evangelist parish recreation room in Green Bay.

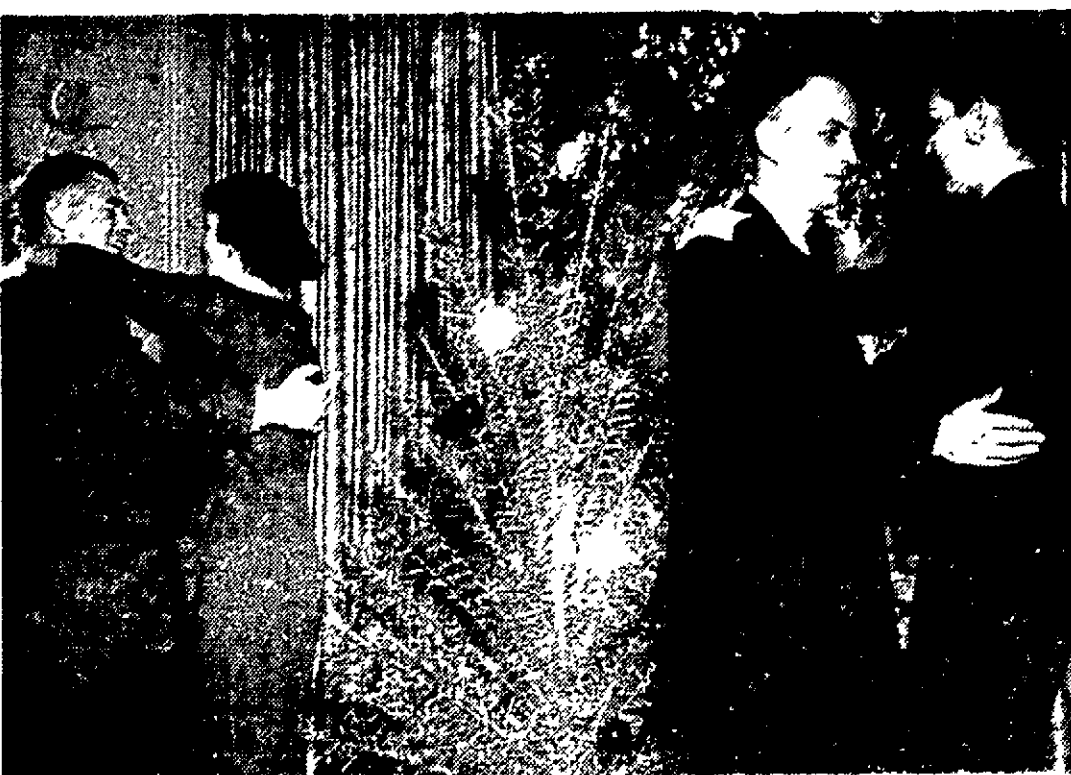

Among the newly appointed diocesan standing committee chairmen introduced was Mrs. Elmer Halaychik, spiritual development, Menasha.

Appleton residents attending were Mrs. Hubert Wetak, fourth vice president, Mrs. Harry H. Long, diocesan international relations director, and Miss Haag, Outagamie deanery president.

A noon luncheon was served by the St. John Women's society.

Butte des Morts Golf club was the setting for the Valley Industrial Salesmen's association's Christmas party Sunday evening. Standing at the cocktail table are Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Bergquist.

Your Problems Entertaining in Basement Rec Rooms Insulting to Guests

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: What has happened to American entertaining? I refer to people who invite you over for a social evening and then put you in the cellar—the recreation room.

Why do people have a living room or a dining room if they don't want anyone to go near them? I think it's insulting the way a host or a hostess meets guests at the door and proceeds to hustle them right past the good furniture down to the coal hole.

You get to sit on the old makeshift couch or chair with the oil-burner and water-heater in full view. The floor usually has some discarded, ratty-looking rug or homemade linoleum.

Why do reasonably intelligent people do this, Ann? Don't they realize guests want to be entertained in homes not basements?—Seven Leagues Under

Pair Observes 81st Wedding Anniversary

Fairview, Utah — An informal open house was the big event today as Peter and Celestia Peterson observed their 81st wedding anniversary. They are believed to be the nation's longest-married couple.

Peterson, 99, farmed at this central Utah community until he was 82. His wife will be 99 Dec. 28. They were married, Dec. 11, 1878 in the St. George (Utah) temple of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

The couple has 250 living descendants, including seven surviving children.

They still have one major goal they would like to accomplish together. They want to be able to help each other celebrate their 100th birthdays next year.

"...I've been married for 35 years and my husband and I couldn't be more different. He loves gambling and I love contests and story writing. Why is my husband morbid? I'm cheerful most of the time. Also, why do I keep all the clocks in the house fast?"

Your swift, loose-jointed script indicates that time slips away from you too easily. There aren't enough hours in a day to accomplish all your active mind dreams up. Perhaps you are subconsciously trying to tuck away a few extra minutes by keeping the clocks fast!

Your husband's large, right-slanted letters reveal a friendly yet reserved nature but not a morbidity. Perhaps he has sorrows regarding his "hobby" (gambling). Your own letters from his readers. They cannot be acknowledged but the most interesting ones will be used in her column.

In Good Taste Keep Music At Dinner Low Toned

BY EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: My brother and I are arguing about whether or not it is permissible to turn the radio on during a dinner party. I think it's unfair to run the risk of inflicting a program on guests which they may not really want to hear at all and yet in politeness feel they have to say they do.

Answer: Ordinarily when music is played at a dinner or any social gathering, it is not supposed to be a bar to conversation. That is, it should be very low so as to be no more than a musical background. On the other hand should news of great importance (or a program of probable interest to those present) be coming over the air, guests would naturally be asked whether or not they are interested in hearing it. If they say they are, conversation would temporarily cease.

Son Not Invited

Dear Mrs. Post: We've been invited to a wedding and there is no mention of our 12-year-old son. We feel that since he is no longer a little child and knows how to behave that he should have been included. He has counted so much on going. Would it be correct to take him?

Answer: I'm sorry to say that unless his name was included in your invitation he is not expected, and therefore you should not take him. Omission of his name should not be taken as a slight to him, because in most instances it is impossible to provide space and food for many children outside of the immediate families. And to include an especial few is to risk hurting the feelings of the parents of all of the others.

Transportation

Dear Mrs. Post: Is it necessary for the bride to send a car to pick up the bridesmaids at their houses on the morning of the wedding to take them to the bride's house, or do they arrange for their own transportation?

Answer: If the bridesmaids have no family cars to bring them to the bride's house, the bride's parents should make the necessary arrangements for their transportation.

Mrs. Post offers readers leaflets on a variety of subjects concerning etiquette. If you would like to have her leaflet E-3, entitled, "The Clothes of the Bridal Party," send 10 cents in coin to Dept. E.P., care of this newspaper, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N.Y.

Designing Woman

BY ELIZABETH HILLIER

Decoration Makes Bows, Wreaths, Tree Trims

Satin, color-delightful ribbon does so much more than tie beautiful bows on gift packages. It helps to decorate the house with wreaths, and makes ornaments for the tree. The two wreath designs sketched bedeck themselves with flowers made of the ribbon. The basic double petal shape needed for both types is shown below the wreath at upper left, and shown below this detail are two of them joined at the center as they must be for the flowers. Ribbonette sticks to itself with slight moistening, and the next step in making the flowers for the left hand wreath is to fold each of the petals over with their moistened tips in the center and hold them there until they attach.

Poinsettia-like flowers for the other wreath use the ribbonette, for example, is not double petal shapes flat and only the thread-a-bow type more of them, and finish with a centered circle cut from ribbonette in a contrasting color. Wreaths to mount both kinds of flowers are of cardboard, cut in a one-inch wide circle that's place. And handsome papers eleven inches in diameter, come with no creases, rolled in green ribbonette winds around the cardboard to cover it, and more of the green cuts the petal shapes to become leaves, attached under the flowers.

Ornaments for extra-important gift boxes and to hang on the tree simply loop ribbonette in unusual ways. Shown are six ideas for these ornaments, the two hanging at upper right, three on boxes and the little angel below left. They're so much easier to make than they appear to be. Loop a length of ribbonette experimentally as a starter, per clip the parts of the loops that must stick together to hold the shape, and you're off on ideas of your own. Even the little angel needs no more than the moistening of ribbon surmount the loops are shaped, except for the cut-out head. Help with the making of all kinds of fancy bows comes with ribbonette this year. One reel of the beautiful satintone ribbonette, for example, is not double petal shapes flat and only the thread-a-bow type more of them, and finish with a centered circle cut from ribbonette in a contrasting color. Wreaths to mount both kinds of flowers are of cardboard, cut in a one-inch wide circle that's place. And handsome papers eleven inches in diameter, come with no creases, rolled in green ribbonette winds around the cardboard to cover it, and more of the green cuts the petal shapes to become leaves, attached under the flowers.

Our Children
Child No Little Man or Woman

BY ANGELO PATRI

Often people forget that children, being children, are childish and must be allowed the characteristics of childhood. A small boy hurts himself and goes to his mother crying lustily. "No, now, stop crying. You're mother's little man and men don't cry." Don't they?

A small girl runs to her mother crying. "Lulubelle hit me." She did? Never. Mind. You're a big girl now and able to stand up for yourself. Not a cry-baby."

The hard truth is that the children are not little men or big girls, but children, in need of comfort and understanding.

Only Begun Struggle

They have only begun the long trying struggle to grow and develop the strength, power and understanding that maturity will bring. At their stage of development they need to cry in times of defeat, need to be told how they can overcome their difficulties. Above all they need to know the all-embracing love that their mothers feel for them.

Of course we don't intend to rear a cry-baby. There is, as usual, the middle-of-the-road stand that we can and should take. First the healing, comforting affection they crave in time of trouble. Then the hint that they can overcome the hurt and even prevent its coming. But always they should feel that they have a sustaining, understanding friend in father and mother.

They must be allowed their childishness in its season. They will outgrow it in time provided this phase of their growth is wisely handled.

Phases Blend

Anybody who has watched children develop from infancy through adolescence knows how one phase of growth blends into the next. What some never see is how the first phase must be treated so that its mission of growth is completed and acts as a base for the next phase to stand on.

When childhood is accepted for what it is, a forerunner of growth to come and allowed its full measure of development the next phase, pre-adolescence, is fed and strengthened by it. When it is not granted full recognition, accepted, guided, the next phase is confused by constant intrusions of the previous one still struggling for completion.

Mother's Helper
by Heilmann & Pearson

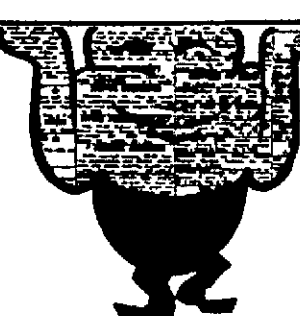

CHILDREN are often tempted to reach into the family refrigerator for a quick snack—especially if you're not in the kitchen. So do be sure to wash all fruits and vegetables before you store them. Dry them, too—to prevent unduly rapid spoilage.

American Guest Watches Snake Charmer, Buys Indian Saris for Gifts

BY BETTE SIMS

New Delhi —An attractive young housewife from Washington passed up lunch with two presidents today to attend to her duties as housewife, mother and tourist.

While her father-in-law entertained Indian President Rajendra Prasad at the home of U. S. Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker, 33-year-old Barbara Eisenhower:

1. Watched a snake charmer cast his spell over a good-sized cobra.

2. Confided to sixth graders at New Delhi's American school that her sixth-grader son David sometimes needs a hand in his homework.

3. Bought a selection of Indian saris for herself and Christmas presents for her three daughters, her mother and her friends.

The snake charmer, whom Barbara came across in a bazaar run by Tibetan refugees, fascinated Eisenhower's daughter-in-law. The charmer wagged his horn from side to side and the cobra obligingly picked up the swaying motion.

"Goodness," exclaimed Barbara in half-serious concern, "I hope it isn't poisonous."

A wife from the American embassy who accompanied Mrs. Eisenhower assured her the snake's fangs probably had been removed.

Barbara visited the American school around noon, after accompanying Eisenhower to Delhi university, where he received a bachelor of laws degree.

Children of the school had planned to sing Christmas carols for the president but his tight schedule did not permit him to hear them. So Barbara remained behind, heard the carols and then toured the school.

She paused in sixth grade for a while and chatted. She told the children her son David, the president's only grandson, asked her to tell him about India when she returned home. The children said they would write David letters to tell him all about India.

Barbara told the youngsters David doesn't need help too often with his homework "but of course there are times when he has to have it."

From the school Barbara went shopping at a government emporium which is an outlet for Indian handicrafts. And she appeared to go easy on her husband's salary, that of an army major.

Clerks showed her expensive saris but she waved them away and bought four or five cheaper ones. A costing "6 and 7" each. A sari is a ground length wrap-around gown which has one part thrown over the shoulder.

Barbara remarked that the sari fabrics were lovely and said she plans to wear them herself but would try them on in private.

Barbara also bought some Indian costume jewelry and admired a tiger skin but shook her head sadly when told it would cost $1,255.

At a pocketbook counter she bought a pastel colored silk purse costing $3.

For her daughters Barbara bought several yards of handloomed print cloth. She said she would have it made into punjabi outfits which consists of pajama-like pants and three-quarter blouses and worn by most Indian school children. They cost about $2 each.

Ice Holiday Show Revised, Outstanding

Reviewer Notes Few Repeats From '58 Performances

BY JACK RUDOLPH
Post-Crescent News Service

"Holiday on Ice" has returned to the Brown County Memorial arena. From the size of the first night crowd, many people apparently felt that it is just another ice show — if you've seen it once you've seen them all.

But they are dead wrong. This is a completely new show. Not only new in form and content but completely redesigned, recostumed and staged with glittering precision and color.

It is far better than last year.

In fact, about the only reminders of last year's arena debut are Tommy Allen as the little sailor and tiny Debbie Williams. Allen was as cheerful and unpredictable as ever, but Debbie has changed.

Debbie's Growing Up

She won't be doing headstands for her dad, Johnny Williams, much longer. Debbie is growing up into a poised old pro, and she can skate. But if Johnny loses a straight man he's gaining a potential star and in any event the loss can be quickly remedied. Her little brother Robbie is ready to step into her vacated spot.

"Holiday on Ice" is a long show, running through 21 acts, but so well planned and organized that one runs into the other smoothly and quickly with no more time between than it takes to turn the lights off and on. Even so, the running time is well over two hours.

An outstanding feature of this revue is the glamour-icer line. It is much better trained than a year ago and skates with better timing and precision. My memory may be faulty in this regard, but it seems to me the group is larger, too.

Costumes Lavish

The costuming throughout is lavish, sparkling clean and colorful. The results add up to a number of truly spectacular numbers, of which four were outstanding. The silver anniversary bit with which the program opened was the tipoff to what was in store, beautifully done. The legend of the black pearl ballet closing the first half was equally effective.

But the top ensembles of the evening were The Lancers — a Russian number inspired by the troupe's visit to Moscow this past summer — and Gaelic holiday. The Lancers was stunningly executed, while the Gaelic number was probably the most popular of the evening.

The show doesn't rely so heavily on individual stars this season, but its headliners are excellent. Jinx Clark carried the main role, but she was ably supported by Tommy Collins, Arnold Shoda, Ray Balmer, Alfredo Mendoza and Alice Quessy. The comedy team of Ives and Clark pulled down the best hands of the entire performance.

Well, there it is. If you think you've seen all there is to see on skates, you're missing a bet. Anyway, there are still three days in which to correct the oversight, with matinees on Saturday and Sunday. Even if you saw "Holiday on Ice" last season, you won't be disappointed in the repeat.

State Traffic Patrol Growth Turned Down

Assembly Refuses Expansion for Interstate Roads

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

Madison — The Wisconsin state traffic patrol got the worst political spanking of its short life late Thursday when the state assembly without a word of argument knocked down its pleas for additional patrolmen to police interstate highways.

As if to emphasize its reservations about the patrol and its aspirations for growth, the assembly also wrote into law a clear provision for county highway patrols and sheriffs' deputies to have concurrent jurisdiction on the new highways being financed by the federal government.

The patrol had proposed exclusive jurisdiction for itself, as well as authority to hire 40 more men each year for the next three years, to supplement its present force of 250.

Bipartisan Act

The assembly decision was bipartisan, and almost surely forecast similar action by the state senate.

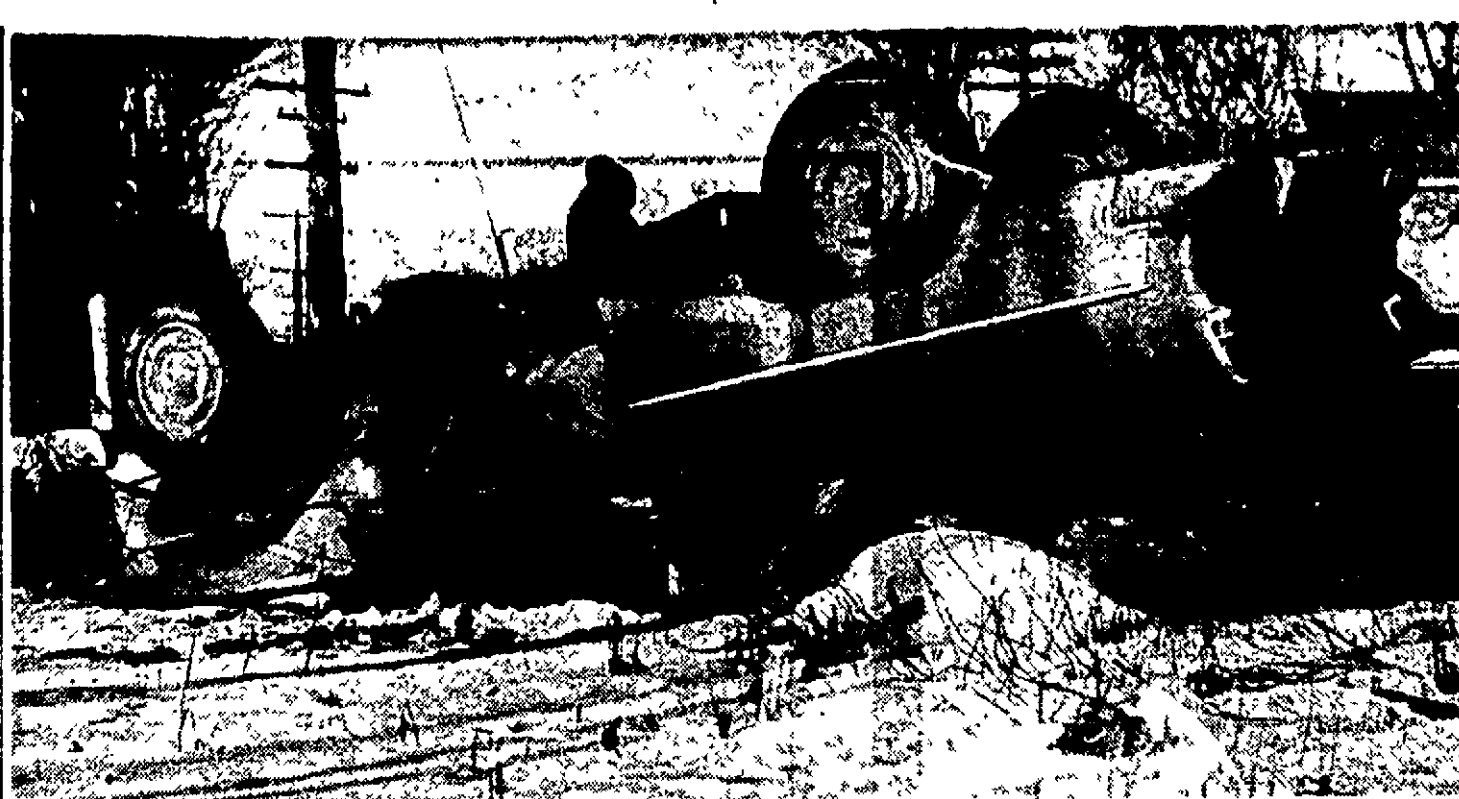

The probable meaning of the strong assembly vote is that the patrol will be frozen at its present size indefinitely. The assembly is controlled by Democrats, who turned aside the recommendation of Gov. Nelson when they declined to support expansion. Two years ago a Republican-dominated legislature similarly ignored requests for an increase of the 250-man patrol established largely at the insistence of Republican Gov. Walter J. Kohler.

Local patrolmen and sheriffs have fought the patrol persistently, claiming the state needs a coordinated system of enforcement and the state agency has shown no interest in cooperating with the local enforcement officers.

The assembly action came in connection with routine approval of a $174,500,000 budget for the state highway department for the next year. The spending of the department will be sharply cut back because of a reduction in federal aid payments.

Johnson Denies He's in Race But He Acts Like Candidate

BY ARTHUR EDSON

Marshalltown, Iowa — Of all the coy presidential aspirants who flit around the land, none is harder to figure than the tall, ambitious, hard driving Texan, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson.

Johnson acts like a candidate. He hustles from spot to spot, in his own twin-engined, 6-seater plane, like a candidate. His words are the words of a candidate.

Publicly and privately Johnson will assure you that he's no candidate. Since he's making no effort to win the Democratic presidential nomination, he says, he hasn't a chance.

Johnson's own explanation of what he's up to seems true enough. He's the Democratic leader in the senate, responsible for legislating for all the people. He should see what's happening outside of Texas, and he often does when congress isn't in session.

As you watch and listen and wonder, a few impressions fall into place.

Shrewd Leader

No man is more skilled at counting the political house

Gordon to the Wisconsin conservation commission.

They were named by Gov. Gaylord Nelson last month to succeed Leonard Seyberth of Eau Claire and Dr. A. W. Schorger of Madison.

Knows when to move and when to lie low, might make great progress.

A 100-year tradition might be broken, and then Lyndon Johnson, his big Texas hat pushed back jauntily, his face abeam, his glasses whisked off so photographers could get a better shot of him, could stride as a full-fledged candidate up the path that leads toward the White House.

It's foolish to butt one's head against a tightly locked door. If his great friend and teacher, Speaker Sam Rayburn, wants to start Johnson-for-president clubs all over Texas, why not humor him? There's no harm traveling about meeting the folks, is there?

Johnson doesn't have to stay up late at night to discover this fact of political life. Since the Civil war, the door of the White House has been locked tight against all southerners.

Johnson knows it, and resents it.

His resentment shows up in such comments as this, made while he was speaking up for additional civil rights legislation:

"We must purge ourselves of all bigotry, whether it's against a majority or a minority, whether it's against a class or a section." Here Johnson paused significantly. "And I'd like to emphasize 'section.'"

Southern Support

Johnson probably will go to the national nominating convention next summer with a good lineup of southern votes, as well as others he will pick up in the mountain and western states.

The convention should be a humdinger.

If it should come to an uproarious stalemate, a man of great persuasive powers, who minder that Eisenhower sometimes sleeps during the day, and the impression left on the audience is that Johnson, who a heart attack of his own in 1955, will never be caught napping.

Here in the farm belt Johnson naturally hits hard at the farm policies of Sec. of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson. He also blames the administration for high interest rates, for a lag in missiles, for what he calls the disrepair of our foreign alliances.

Attacks GOP

"The Republican party," he says, "has already settled for second place in the world."

Johnson worries a great deal because he thinks he's not too good at reading a speech. "I don't read it well," he says. "I lose contact."

He's at his best when he throws the script away. Then he talks a lot about how things were down in Texas when he was a boy, pretty tough, and how he grew up to be the youngest majority leader in the history of the senate.

In nearly all of his speeches Johnson slips in a sentence that comes out about like this:

"Let's keep our eyes on the stars — and do the possible."

It's too early to say what's possible or impossible. No matter what he says, you can bet that Lyndon Johnson has his eyes on the White House.

Racing Proves Expensive for Kimberly Men

Kimberly — Racing on County Trunk Z within the village limits at 1:20 a.m. Dec. 3 proved expensive for two young Kimberly men when they pleaded guilty before Albert J. Van Alphen, justice of the peace, Wednesday night.

Village police were parked on a side street off Z when they noticed two cars speed by. Both continued at a high rate of speed as the police gave chase.

Michael Dupont, 20, 214 S. Walnut street, was apprehended and charged with traveling 65 miles per hour in a 40 mile per hour zone and illegal passing. He was fined $50 on the speeding charge and paid $25 for illegal passing.

The second driver, Ronald Smith, 21, 423 S. John street, paid $50 for traveling 74 miles per hour in the same zone and $25 for failing to yield the right of way. 233-566 page 5

Draws Big Crowds

It turns out a lot of folks are curious about Lyndon. He had overflow crowds whenever he spoke in Iowa and Kansas.

Here, in a Republican stronghold, he drew 350 to a dinner in the Tallcorn hotel. It was the largest Democratic turnout here in history.

When speaking to service clubs, Johnson takes the high road, with a few cleverly constructed detours.

He speaks of the great need for responsible leadership in this country. Then he mentions how, as majority leader, he never opposes anything merely because it's proposed by a Republican president.

If this proposal is good for America," he will say, "it's good for the Democratic party."

Only a dullard could fail to understand here that before them is a shining example of responsible leadership. At these meetings he refers to President Eisenhower often and kindly.

Indirect Jabs

At political meetings Johnson can become almost as freewheeling a critic as Harry S. Truman. True, he remains pleasant in his attitude toward Eisenhower, but now he may get in a few jabs.

He will be talking about Russia's Nikita S. Khrushchev, how forceful he is, how determined. "I didn't see a man who needed a siesta in the afternoon," he will say.

This is a not too gentle reminder that Eisenhower sometimes sleeps during the day, and the impression left on the audience is that Johnson, who a heart attack of his own in 1955, will never be caught napping.

Suit Settled For $6,000

Horse-Car Accident Injured Woman, 77; She Asked $50,000

A $50,000 suit against a horseman and a driver has been settled for $6,000 after trial opened before a municipal court jury. The settlement was made after Judge Oscar J. Schmieg held a conference after opening statements to the jury.

Mrs. Martha Hein, 73, 3022 N. Oneida street, had charged negligence against Mrs. Evelyn Lex, 105 Second avenue, in whose car she was riding, and Robert Lillge, 18, serving in the navy, the horseman.

Mrs. Hein was injured April 1, 1958, at Second and Oneida when Lillge rode his horse into the side of the Lex car. The horse, whose name was Light-

Dentist Takes Traffic In Hand; Pays for It

Los Angeles — (U —) For painting a white crosswalk in the street, Dr. Louis J. Friedman must pay $63.55.

That, the city traffic department said Thursday, is what it cost to erase the lines. The dentist told police he waited two years for the city to put in a crosswalk near his Sherman Oaks office. Finally he decided to do the job himself.

He still has a court appearance coming — to answer a charge of installing an unauthorized traffic device — the crosswalk.

ning, was killed. Lillge was uninjured.

Payment of the damages was split between Integrity Mutual Insurance company, the Lex carrier, and Lillge's public liability carrier, not impleaded in the case.

Recreation to Cost Less in 1960 Budget

Playground Outlay Decrease of $5,500 Compared to 1959

Kaukauna — There is a decrease in the recreation department budget for 1960 compared to 1959, due mainly to considerable less outlays for playground purposes.

Total recreation budget is $38,425 or $1,600 less than the $40,025 spent in 1959. Playground outlays amount to $1,500 compared to $7,000 in 1959. The latter included a shelter and rest rooms for the Dodge street baseball field.

Cost of operating playground programs is expected to be $16,500 in 1960 compared to $14,500 in 1959. This reflects an extension of supervised play activity as well as pay adjustments for summer help.

Pool operation will cost $16,000 in 1960 compared to $15,000 in 1959. Outlays for the pool remained at $500 for both years. City band expense for 1960 is listed at $100. No band expenditures were included in the 1959 budget.

Other Items
An expansion of the summer and winter basketball program, already underway, results in $900 being appropriated for 1960 compared to $800 spent in 1959. Cost of operating dance classes for both years is $1,200.

Increased membership in the Golden Age club has forced the appropriation of $500 compared to $250 in 1959. The teenage bowling program will cost $250 in 1960 compared to $75 in 1959.

Art classes will cost the city $500 in 1960 and the American Legion baseball program will cost $400, the same as in 1959. Bridge classes in 1960 will cost $75. No appropriation was made for this in 1959.

Recreation department receipts in 1960 are estimated at $7,000 compared to $5,300 in 1959. This includes fees from the pool, recreation dances and art instruction fees.

Potluck Supper Highlights WCOF Christmas Party

Kaukauna — A covered dish supper preceded by a cocktail hour highlighted the annual Christmas party of Women's Catholic Order of Foresters Sacred Heart Court 556 Wednesday night.

Women in charge were Mrs. Ben Ives, Mrs. Matt Verfurth, Miss Ann Wolf, Miss Viola Wolf, and Mrs. Rose Schydzik. Prizes were won by Mrs. Augusta Goetzman, Miss Frances Jirikowic and Mrs. Eva Meyer.

Hostesses for the Jan. 20 meeting will be Mrs. Anna Klein, Mrs. Dave Egan and Mrs. John Gerrits.

OCTC Yuletide Concert Set

Grade Students to Join Adult Group in Presenting Program

Kaukauna — Plans are underway for the annual Christmas concert by students at Outagamie County Teachers college Dec. 17, according to Mrs. Dorothea Koepke, music and vocal instructor.

Students enrolled in the campus elementary school also will appear on the program. Opening the concert will be a special chorus. A duet, Miss Nathalia Kuhn and Donald Dickenson, will sing and there will be a special Christmas greeting from children in the first through fourth grades.

Pantomime Set
"The Story of Christmas," a pantomime with a reader, will have students enact the Nativity. Reader will be Miss Mona Weber while the cast includes Teri Jorgenson, LeAnn Sjedsjag, Kristen Kaurth, Jessie Pratt, Scott Borree and Richard DeGroot.

Others will be Dale Mamine, Shirley DeGroot, Jane Vincent, Dick Vincent, David Schlude and David Balck.

Concluding the program will be a community sing.

Area Chorus to Begin Christmas Caroling Visits

Kaukauna — The Kaukauna Little Chute chapter of SPEBSQSA will begin its annual round of Christmas appearances Saturday night when the group entertains wives at a Christmas party at the Legion hall, Wrightstown, at 6 p.m.

Four visits are scheduled Monday night as members will sing carols at the Modern Convalescent home on the French road, Appleton, at St. Paul's convent in Kaukauna,

Kaukauna Merchants Take Lead in City Basketball Loop

Kaukauna — Close games featured play in the City Cage league Wednesday night with Kaukauna Merchants taking over first place with a 3-0 record by virtue of a 53-50 win over Arnie's Bar. The latter has a 2-1 mark.

The second game saw Thilco tip Wiggie Foods 44-40. The winners now are 1-2 for the season while the losers have dropped three straight.

The Merchants-Arnie's contest was close throughout with a strong third period scoring spurge resulting in the win for the Merchants. The losers took a 12-9 lead at the end of the first period and at halftime held a 23-24 advantage.

Second Contest
Led by a 13-point output by Gerry Hopfensperger in the third frame, the Merchants moved to a 41-36 advantage going into the final quarter. The losers outscored the winners 14-12 in the final period but were unable to overcome the edge. Hopfensperger hit 19 and Ralph Karst had 10 for the winners while Pat Casper tallied 17 and Mike Rohe had 13 for the losers.

Thilco chalked up its first at the Kaukauna Community hospital and a surprise visit to the Green Bay chapter.

On Dec. 21 the unit will sing carols at the County hospital, Appleton, at the City of Appleton home on Spencer street, and at the Valley Iron Works Christmas party.

In the Wiggie Foods contest but the victory was in doubt up to the final minute as both teams fought on near equal terms throughout the contest.

The winners jumped off to an 8-4 first quarter lead and saw the score deadlocked at 20-all at halftime. Thilco Moved into a 2-point lead in the third frame and then outscored Wiggie 15-13 in the final period to take the decision.

Bob Roloff hit 13 points while Paul Jahnke scored 11 and Russ Tietel hit 10 for the winners while Ed Vanden Heuvel registered 14 and Jerry DeBruin scored 10 for the losers.

Chuter JV Team Edges Cadets, 39-38

Little Chute — St. John High school junior varsity cagers hiked their season record to 4-1 with a thrilling 39 to 38 win over Preontre Thursday night here.

Inability to hit from the free throw line cost the Cadets the game as they made only four of 20 attempts. Preontre had a 17 to 13 edge in the field goal department but the Chuters hit 13 free throws in 24 shots.

St. John led throughout the game and at one point in the fourth period the Dutchmen had a 7-point lead. Preontre came on fast in the closing minutes to narrow the margin and take a 38 to 37 lead, with less than a minute left. Jerome Diedrich made good on a pair of free throws to give the Chuters the victory.

Diedrich led the St. John scoring with 11 points while Jay Lamers added nine. Bill Wesley, 6-5 center, led Preontre with 11 field goals and a free throw for 23 points.

Residents Seek School Bus In Village

Commissioners Can't Provide Service On Limited Budget

Combined Locks — A request for the school board to furnish bus transportation to 33 pupils living in the Wallace plat was turned down by the Combined Locks school board.

The petition was signed by 55 residents who pointed out the students lived one and one-half miles from the school and many had dangerous walking along County Trunk N where there are no sidewalks.

Representing petitioners were Mrs. Edwin Taggart and Mrs. Joseph Lenz. School board members agreed arguments for bus transportation were sound even though the board is not required to furnish service unless students live two miles from the school.

The board said its hands were tied. No expenditure was included in the budget for this purpose and such a service would have to be approved at the annual meeting in July by all taxpayers.

Back Pay for Workers May be Figured Again

Teamster Leader Discovers Overtime Hours Not Included in Distribution by Council

Back pay for city employees, approved last week by the city council, apparently will be figured again to include overtime hours worked.

Robert Schlieve, Teamster union leader, discovered from the council's finance committee Thursday that City Clerk Broehm had determined the amount of back pay for each worker from April 1 to Dec. 1 on the basis of the normal work week.

Committeemen said they had assumed the retroactive pay would be determined on the basis of hours worked, including time-and-a-half, but they had not instructed Broehm.

Advices To Keep Date Some committeemen said the $31,880 total to be distributed may be diminished by the overtime demands so the back date of April 1 has to be moved up a few days.

Schlieve urged that the April 1 date, since it already has been announced, be kept.

Committeemen said they would settle both questions—whether to include overtime and the back date—after Broehm furnishes exact figures, probably at a special meeting Tuesday night.

Committeemen said they hope to have the questions settled in time for payment of checks before Christmas.

Schlieve appeared before the committee to discuss his

Appleton Teamsters are attempting to organize the city's street and sanitation department employees and intend to conduct an organizational drive among policemen and firemen soon.

Robert Schlieve, Teamster leader, revealed his organization's plans Thursday to the city council's finance committee.

He explained that state law for the first time requires municipalities to recognize unions as bargaining agents if a majority of the workers join the union.

The Teamsters in recent years have had the sanitation department workers organized, but it also lost members in its unofficial position.

High Bridge Railings Unsafe, Citizen Says

Meet National Standard, State Designer Replies

Railings on the College avenue height set by the American Association of State Highway Officials, R. J. Schultz, bridge designer of the state highway commission, explained.

Purdy, 115 N. Green Bay road, secretary and director of engineering for Appleton Wire Works, Inc., explained his claim this way:

Dangerous for Children "Certainly the state industrial commission code calls for 3 feet, 6 inches, (42 inches) of railing around any opening in a store or factory, a public place.

"The reason has been explained to me as necessity to prevent anyone who falls against the railing from pitching into the hole.

"Now, with this railing I have visions of kids on bikes, for example, riding along the sidewalk and for one reason or another being pitched over the rail.

"I don't think it's a safe railing."

Different Standards Schultz told State Highway District Engineer L. W. Empey that the 36-inch requirement is standard for all states of information furnished by the association. He indicated this includes all states. The association permits reduction of the height by half the width of rail, but the state has never followed this, he added.

Besides, he said, the state highway commission is not bound by rules and regulations of the state industrial commission. There is a difference between buildings and bridges, he indicated.

Purdy said the bridge is as public a place as a store or factory and he cannot see what the difference might be. He was critical of the state setting different requirements on essentially the same kind of problem.

Cites Other Rails Purdy also reported the longest of the Oneida street bridges, built shortly after World war II, has railings 36 1/2 inches high in places, but the old wire mesh fence along the Appleton Woolen Mills property is 43 inches high.

Memorial drive bridge has a 39-inch rail, with a 4-inch width at the top; the oldest part of the Law street bridge, built in 1923, has a 42-inch rail with 11 inches across the top; the newest Lawe street bridge, built in 1955, has a 48-inch rail, with six inches across the top; the other Lawe street bridge has a 40-inch rail; the John street low level bridge has 42 and 40-inch rails, Purdy reported. "It seems, he said, "that the more modern the design, the more unsafe the rail. It looks like they're trying to save the cost of six inches of inch rail; the John street low

Tipsy Drivers Plead Guilty

Oshkosh Youth, 17, Resists Arrest, Police Claim

A Winneconne man and a 17-year-old Oshkosh youth pleaded guilty of drunken driving this morning in Oshkosh municipal court and their drivers' licenses were revoked for one year. They are:

William J. Schedel, 51, route 1, Winneconne.

Richard Nigl, 17, of 627 Evans street, Oshkosh.

Previous Charge Schedel pleaded guilty of drunken driving and of driving after his license was revoked. He was fined $100 on the first charge and $50 on the second, and was given a mandatory 5-day jail term.

He was arrested at 5:15 p.m. Thursday while driving the wrong way on an Oshkosh 1-way street. His license had been revoked for drunken driving Aug. 11, 1958, in Oshkosh municipal court.

Nigl pleaded guilty of drunken driving and of resisting arrest. Entry of judgment was deferred until 1:30 p.m. next Thursday. Juvenile court jurisdiction was waived.

The youth was arrested at 9:52 p.m. Thursday after the car which police said he was driving was involved in an accident at Evans and Parkway streets, Oshkosh.

Nigl became abusive when questioned at his home and was taken to the police station.

Car Crashes Into Wall at Sherwood

Sherwood—A car driven by Theodore Van Dra, route 2, Hilbert, plunged through a wall of the post office about 12:17 a.m. Thursday.

Van Dra told police he could not remember anything connected with the accident. He was not reported injured.

Christmas Tale, Movie Planned for Story Hour

A three Fox Fables, and a Christmas story are scheduled for the children's story hour at the Appleton Public library at 2 p. m. Saturday.

Miss Bonnie Harris, assistant youth librarian, will tell "Plum Pudding for Christmas," by Virginia Kahl. It is the story of a lonely duchess who invites the king for Christmas dinner, convincing him to come with a promise of plum pudding.

At the last minute one of the duchess' many children eats all the plums and throws the household into a panic.

Sixty-five children attended the story hour last week.

Birth Record The following births were reported by Fox Cities area hospitals today:

St. Elizabeth: Daughters to: Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Besette, route 3, Appleton. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Keller, 1522 W. Spencer street.

Appleton Memorial: Sons to: Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Yowell, 617 1/2 N. Superior street. Mr. and Mrs. Arvin Rank, 713 S. Douglas street.

Daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Obermeier, route 2, Appleton.

Theda Clark: Son to Mr. and Mrs. Sokolowski, 410 First street, Menasha.

Daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Dixon Sandberg, 723 Congress street, Neenah.

Calumet Memorial, Chilton: Daughter to Mr. and Mrs. James Liebert, Hilbert.

New London Community: Daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Sigl, Hortonville.

Son to Mr. and Mrs. Glen Thorpe, 507 Oshkosh street, New London.

Kaukauna Community: Sons to: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nagan, 322 W. Twelfth street, Kaukauna.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Rewey, route 2, Menasha.

The new College avenue bridge got a somewhat premature opening the other day. Anonymous tipsters say a group of citizens gathered on the bridge with two bottles of champagne — one for the "christening". A beautiful bridge, they report, and "Boy, is it cold up there!"

Pay for Drunkenness Adolph Ristau, 61, of 1103 W. Lawrence street, found lying in the 600 block of W. College avenue Tuesday, forfeited $101 and Mrs. Stella Fiedler, of 1701 Ravinia place, found near a motel at Highways 41 and 125 Thursday night, have forfeited $18.95 on charges of public drunkenness.

Harry N. Smith Harry N. Smith, 85, King, died at 6 p. m. Wednesday at King after a long illness. He was born Aug. 18, 1874, in Oshkosh. He came to King from Trempealeau county in 1958.

Funeral services will be at 10 a. m. Saturday at the Grand Army home chapel. King, with burial in the Wisconsin Veterans Memorial cemetery. King, Friends may call at the Holly Funeral home, Waupaca, until 9 a. m. Saturday.

He is survived by five daughters and two sons, all living in the western part of the state.

"The Other Wise Man," by Henry Van Dyke, will tell of a legendary fourth magi in the annual Christmas program at 8 p.m. Sunday in St. Mary High school auditorium. The gospels omit mention of any wise men, while legend usually mentions three, since gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh were presented. Van Dyke tells of Artaban, carrying three precious jewels, how he spends his treasure and how he finds the new born King. In upper photo, Ralph Weller, a centurion, orders Artaban, played by Tom Williams, and Patricia Remick, a village woman, to move along. Below, Artaban, ministers to an aged Hebrew, helped by Jim Fuller, playing a Galilean, and Dan Nadolney, a boy.

Predict Poor Yield For Blood Program

Thursdays Donations Reach 134 Pints, Half of December Quota

Menasha — "Not too encouraging" was the outlook late this morning for the December bloodmobile visit at First Congregational church.

Mrs. Ronald Becker, publicity chairman, said Thursday's donations totaled 134 pints of whole blood, one-half of the 268-pint quota for this bi-monthly visit.

She added that usually the first day has larger donations than the second day.

Many scheduled for donations, she found, forgot they had appointments.

Deficits in the last few visits have caused quota increases. Normally the bloodmobile visit is expected to yield 240 pints. In October, the quota rose to 260 pints, because of a shortage.

The blood bank, working through the Twin City Red Cross office, provides free blood for all Twin City residents who need it. The only charge they need pay is for administration.

William Platt is Menasha blood program chairman.

Need 20 New Men for Army Reserve Units

Menasha — About 20 new men without prior military service may join Menasha and Appleton army reserve units this month, says Capt. Thomas Keough, a regular army adviser to the 274th regiment (basic combat training).

Such new men, he said, must enter 6-month active duty training courses during January or February. The Menasha unit can accommodate nine new men and the Appleton unit the remainder.

Dies at Gillett

Gillett — Arthur P. Amond, 70, father of Ralph Amond, route 1, Neenah, died here this morning after a short illness. The widow also survives. Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday afternoon. The Kuehl Funeral home is in charge of arrangements.

Kiwanis Meeting

Menasha — Monday night's Kiwanis club meeting will be ladies' night. The dinner meeting will be at 6 p.m. at Crystal Quarry. Fred Cherepew will tell the club of his hiking and camping trips and will show slides.

Sister Dies

Winneconne — Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Nellie Gould at Methodist hospital, Minneapolis. The former Nellie Lund was the sister of Mrs. Charles Hughes of Winneconne.

Neenah Hikes Library Fines

2 Cents a Day To be Charged Starting Jan. 4

Neenah — Fees for rental books and fines for overdue books at the Neenah Public library will be increased from 1 to 2 cents a day, according to Librarian Ernest R. Kunter.

This will apply to all books borrowed from the library beginning Jan. 4. Fines are charged for each day, including Sundays and holidays, that a book is kept over the time limit.

While many people using the library think the fines charged support the library, the fines actually amount to a small part of the budget needed to maintain library services, the librarian said.

Fines are intended to improve library service by giving borrowers a reason for returning books promptly and so making these books available to other readers, he said.

It has become obvious a fine one cent a day will not accomplish this purpose.

Miss Chloe Paepke Dies in California

Neenah — Miss Chloe Paepke, 76, formerly of Neenah, died Sunday at Long Beach, Calif., after a two months illness. She was born in Neenah in 1883 and left here about 37 years ago. She and her trip through those two wards mother formerly operated a millinery shop here. There are no immediate survivors.

Coast Guard Station Close Set Monday

General Remodeling Project Held Over Until Next Season

Menasha — The coast guard's Fox river light attendant station will close for the year Monday.

Boatswain's Mate First Class Richard B. Lewis, in charge of the Menasha station, said it will reopen about mid-March, depending on weather.

Navigation aids will be set out when ice clears from Lake Winnebago and the Fox river.

The early freezeover this year caused the station's 3-man detail to leave 18 buoys in the river between Kaukauna and DePere. The buoy boat's wooden hull, Lewis said, might have been damaged by plowing through river ice. The buoy boat cost $50,000, while the buoys are valued about $1,300 in all.

Held over until next year are construction of a bulkhead on the government canal, installation of a 1-ton jib boom for lifting buoys and other navigation aids and general remodeling of the station. The job's cost is contracted at $34,800. When completed, the station buildings will stand near street level.

The nationwide steel strike is believed the cause of the delay in the construction project. Contracts for it were awarded June 30.

Prime contractor for the job is Hurley Construction company of St. Paul, Minn. Besides Lewis, station personnel are John Borra, engineer first class, and John Licht, seaman. They will be stationed at Two Rivers during the winter.

Pleads Innocent of Drunken Driving

Oshkosh — Gerald S. Anderson, 28, of 626 S. Prospect street, Appleton, in municipal court this morning, pleaded innocent of drunken driving. Municipal Judge S. J. Luchinger set trial for 1:30 p.m. Thursday. Anderson was released.

The Appleton driver was arrested by county traffic police on Highway 41 in the town of Oshkosh early this morning.

Neenah Credit Union Declares Dividend

Neenah — Directors of the "Cone" Credit union composed of city of Neenah employees have declared a dividend of 3 per cent per year to be paid as of Dec. 1.

The credit union was chartered June 10 of this year and its officers are George Casperson, president; Donald Leveck, vice president; W. R. Fahrback, treasurer; Albert Krutz, secretary; and John Jurgensen, director at large.

Fruitcake Part of Truly Old Fashioned Christmas

Oshkosh — A good old fashioned fourth teaspoon cloves, one-half teaspoon nutmeg, one teaspoon soda. Add alternately, beating between each addition, sifted ingredients and one cup applesauce, thick and sweetened to taste.

Here is a favorite recipe of Miss Lois Klusmeyer, Winnebago county home agent.

Cream one-half cup butter or other shortening, one cup sugar. Add two eggs, beating well, one cup currants or cut raisins, one two-ounce can ready-cut candied cherries, one two-ounce ready cut candied citron (fruit may be varied to suit preference); one cup coarsely cut nutmeats. Sift together two cups flour (sift before measuring), two teaspoons cinnamon, onemove the cake from the oven 15 minutes before it is done. Brush the top with slightly beaten egg white and arrange the design quickly on its top. Return to the oven and finish baking. Citron, cherries, pineapple fingers, almonds and dates stuffed with Brazil nuts could be used for decorations. Candied gelatin shaped like citrus peel can also be silvered and made into fancy flowers to finish a fruitcake.

Professor Tells How Parents Can Help Child Learn to Read

Neenah — Why does Johnny have more difficulty learning to read than his sister? What are the differences between the reading difficulties of the bright child and the slower learner? What can you do as a parent to help your child to listen and what is the proper role for the parent in relation to the child and the school?

These and similar questions were discussed by Dr. Jean I. Caudle, professor of education at Oshkosh State college, for the "Dads Night" program of Roosevelt school Mothers' club Wednesday.

If your child learns to print, he will learn to read so much more rapidly. "That's why we would not attempt to teach cursive writing at the first grade level," explained Dr. Caudle.

Explaining that reading is taught by a combination of audio, visual and kinetic methods, Dr. Caudle said, "We think it is very important to have a background in phonetics." She pointed out the child that is not as quick often does not need help in phonetics, but needs help in the visual department.

"Boys need help in phonetics five times as much as girls. They do not hear sounds in words as the girls do."

Learning Rate

The professor illustrated her definition of the learning rate for a child, just how fast a child learns, by listing 25 foreign words for an adult to learn in five minutes. You would say, "you gave me too much to learn in too short a time." "If we try to teach your child too rapidly, we tend to confuse him," she said. As soon as the work gets too difficult, the child gets restless and disinterested.

"Reading is probably the most important subject in the curriculum," stated Dr. Caudle. In a 1955 study conducted in Oshkosh schools, she reported "girls learn to read faster than boys. We don't know exactly why that is so. We do know girls talk more," she said.

Books at the first grade level now have more stories about boys than girls, she said. Girls will read stories about boys, but boys aren't as interested in stories about girls and "we want to help the boys," she said.

Reading Clinics

"You will find ten boys to one girl in reading clinics throughout the country," the speaker stated. At Oshkosh State college summer clinic, we have one or two girls with 13 boys.

Answering the questions, "is my child making progress in reading and if not, why not," Dr. Caudle discussed one of the new skills, "the listening skill." "The child that listens well, learns well." The child that listens at home and follows directions, will follow directions better at school, she said.

"What can you do as a parent to help your child listen?" Dr. Caudle listed suggestions to help develop listening including "watch that your child follows directions you give." Don't give too many directions as the child may only be ready to follow one direction. She advised giving the child one item to remember on an errand to the store, then two articles, then three.

Enunciate Clearly

"Use clear speech," she warned. "If you enunciate clearly with the initial and final sound, it will help your child so much." One of the best sounds to teach your child is "f", then "b" and "t". The configuration of those letters is good, she explained.

Oral reading also helps, she said. Don't make the child read aloud too long, she warned. The patience of parents wears thin when they must correct a word several times. Remember teachers sometimes tell the child the same word 150 times, she reminded.

"The bright child has exactly the same type of difficulty

Historical Society Tea Features Yule Customs, German Christmas Tree

Menasha — More than 125 people attended the Christmas tea given by the Menasha Historical society at the Menasha library Thursday evening.

Among the exhibits was an old fashioned kitchen scene, using old utensils and a Bat-chelder jug, which was made in Menasha about 75 years ago. Utensils for the kitchen were contributed by Mrs. William Hug, Mrs. Charles Royter, Mrs. Nora Page and Mrs. John Wilterding. The kitchen will remain on exhibit at the library until the middle of January.

The Christmas tree, trimmed with valuable, old German ornaments, was the central attraction. These ornaments will be used on a tree to be exhibited at the Bergessarily at the child's level, the better readers you will find, she said. If the child sees mother and dad reading, he wants to imitate and becomes interested in reading too, she explained.

The annual teacher recognition dinner of the club will be held April 27. The next program is scheduled for Feb. 10. Members were questioned whether they would rather become a regular Parent-Teacher unit rather than a mothers' club, with discussion to continue at the next board meeting.

WBA Has Election

Menasha — The Menasha Woman's Benefit association held its annual election and Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Stanley Bennett, 237 Kaukauna street.

Officers elected were Mrs. Albert Olsen, president; Mrs. Peter Steffens, vice president; Mrs. Minnie Rohe, acting past president; Mrs. Stanley Bennett, financial secretary; Mrs. John Scanlon, treasurer; Mrs. George Mueller, secretary; Mrs. Dora Mielke, chairman; Mrs. Elizabeth Vandeyacht, lady of ceremonies; Mrs. Ed Osterga, sergeant; Mrs. Margaret Knipfel, outer hostess; Mrs. Louise Funk, inner hostess; Mrs. George Mueller, auditor.

Officers were installed by Mrs. Stanley Bennett. Gifts were exchanged and cards were played following the business meeting.

IOOF Meeting

Neenah — A district meeting of Independent Order of Odd Fellows is scheduled for 8 p.m. Saturday with the Twin City lodge as host unit. The winter District 19 session will be held at Menasha Odd Fellows hall.

Class Treasurer

Neenah — Miss June Y. Timm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Timm, 921 Higgins street, has been elected treasurer of the junior class at Valparaiso (Ind.) university.

Relief Corps Hold Annual Elections

Menasha — Annual elections were held by J. P. Shepard and H. D. Lewis Women's Relief corps Thursday afternoon and evening at S. A. Cook armory.

Mrs. Peter Borenz was re-elected president of J. P. Shepard corps. Mrs. Arthur Lornson is senior vice president and Mrs. Edward Fischer, junior vice president. Mrs. Reinold Ganzor was re-elected treasurer and Mrs. Carl Christopher, re-elected chaplain. Mrs. Forrest Wilms is conductor and Mrs. Harry Smith was re-elected guard.

Convention delegates are Mrs. Chris Steinfort and Mrs. George Volkman. Alternates are Mrs. Sarah Jacobs and Mrs. Hans Anderson. Aldes will meet Monday at Mrs. James Rice's home, 437 First street. Officers will be installed Jan. 14.

New president of H. J. Lewis corps is Mrs. Theodore Delrow. Other officers are Mrs. Victor Larsen, senior vice president; Mrs. Ella Smith, junior vice president; Mrs. Hattie Drexler, chaplain; Mrs. Anton Dare, treasurer; Mrs. Albert Liskow, conductor; and Mrs. John Blank, guard.

Readings at the party preceding the business session were given by the Mmes. Florence Purdy, Marie Hawkins, John Blank, Edward Blank, Drexler, Ralph Avery, Anton Dare and Claude Cash. Mrs. Liskow sang. Program chairman was Mrs. Edith Seymour.

An honorary membership card was presented to Mrs. Ida Heinicke. Gifts will be given to shut-ins for Christmas. Committee members for the Jan. 14 installation meeting are the Mmes. Lena Fosterling, chairman, Martha Elwood, Dare, Drexler and Myrtle Cowling.

Miss Richardson Honored at Two Bridal Showers

Neenah — Miss Beverly Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harland Richardson, 607 Oak street, who will be married to Robert Ginnow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ginnow, 621 Chestnut street, was honored at two showers recently.

A personal shower was given Dec. 1 by Mrs. Arthur Johnson at the home of her mother, Mrs. Earl Page, 402 Elm street.

Mrs. Paul Peeters and Mrs. Walter Ryn entertained at a miscellaneous shower Thursday at the home of Mrs. Charles Richardson, 413 Pine street.

Miss Richardson and Mr. Ginnow will be married at Trinity Lutheran church, Neenah, Dec. 27.

Zephyrs Seek 7th Straight Victory

Pennings Cagers Visit MHS
Gym; Squires Post 1-1 in FVCC Play; Hosts Have 1-0

Menasha — St. Mary's 6-game win string will go on the line Saturday night when it entertains Abbott Pennings High school of De Pere in a Fox Valley Catholic conference tussle at the Menasha High school court.

The Zephyrs have six straight wins, a 1-0 record in FVCC play and an overall skein of 14 straight conquests in league action in a span consisting of parts of three seasons.

Pennings has a veteran squad which has blown "hot and cold" thus far. Its conference record is 1-1 on a victory 58-54 over Fond du Lac Springs and a 57-51 loss to Marinette Catholic, the latter Tuesday night.

In non-league play, the Squires (who performed under the St. Norbert banner previously), lost to Brussels 48-43 in the opener, romped over Stevens Point Pacelli 71-48 (St. Mary downed the Cardinals 64-54) and won over Sturgeon Bay 53-43.

The De Pere squad is coached by Don LaViolette and has seven lettermen. In addition, the squad is bolstered by boys from last year's jayvee team which won the league title with a 9-1 record.

The returnees are led by Joe Schmitt, the league's second ranking scorer last year. Other returnees are Rolfe Rottier, a 6-2 center, Larry Schmitt and Mark VanderZanden, all of whom were starters last year, plus John Heller, Paul Huelskamp, Roy Clumpner, all of whom started several games.

Nick Meeuwse, Pat Collins and Ray Rottier saw some action. Tom Ready and Jim Hearden are new boys. Tom Parenteau, the Squires' second ranking scorer, was the only loss to graduation.

The Zephyrs were given their toughest run at Stevens Point Sunday in their most recent outing. Pacelli, playing its best game, had a 46-all tie with four minutes left to play but the Menashans hit a hot streak, getting 15 of the next 16 points, to win by 10.

St. Mary won last year's two meetings, copping 68-46 in the game here and 54-46 after a struggle at DePere.

No Honor Sets Rolled In Thursday Leagues

Neenah — No honor scores were rolled in any of the league's reporting totals in Thursday night bowling action at Lakewood.

Resch's Beer leads the Strikes and Spares Women's league by two games with its 27-12 record. Cassidy's and Loehnings are tied for first in the Thursday afternoon Ladies league with 24-11 marks and a half game spread.

Roy's Lunch (25-14) holds a 31 game margin in the South Side Men's circuit and Bowling Belles are in front by seven games with their 29-7 record in the Marathon Girls circuit.

Neenah — The Clintonville, Neenah, New London and Shawano varsity squads all were beaten in their Mid-Eastern conference debuts last weekend but the jayvee teams from those schools defeated the same set of opponents.

Neenah's varsity bowed to Menasha but the Rocket reserves took a 44-31 win. Kaukauna won over the New London but the Bulldog jayvees picked up their first league win in two years with a 58-38 thumping of the Ghosts.

It was Two Rivers over Shawano at the varsity level, but the Indians eked out a 42-41 jayvee win while in the fourth contest Kimberly had little trouble with the Clintonville regulars but the Trucker Bees copped 42-39.

Neenah takes an overall 3-1 mark into tonight's game at Shawano. The Rockets have a 3-game win string since losing the opener to Fond du Lac.

Menasha's season record is 2-2 going into the Two Rivers test. The loss to Shawano was its first after three non-league wins.

Saturday night, Menasha goes to Kimberly and Neenah is host to Neenah. In last year's meetings, Menasha lost to Two Rivers and Kimberly twice while Neenah lost twice to Shawano but split the Clintonville set.

Hearden Paces Loop Scores

Tallies 28 Points In Opener; Jansen Runnerup With 24

Menasha — Kimberly's Don Hearden, leader most of last season, tops the Mid-Eastern conference scorers going into tonight's set of Mid-Eastern conference games.

Hearden scored 28 points in the Papermakers' win over Clintonville last week.

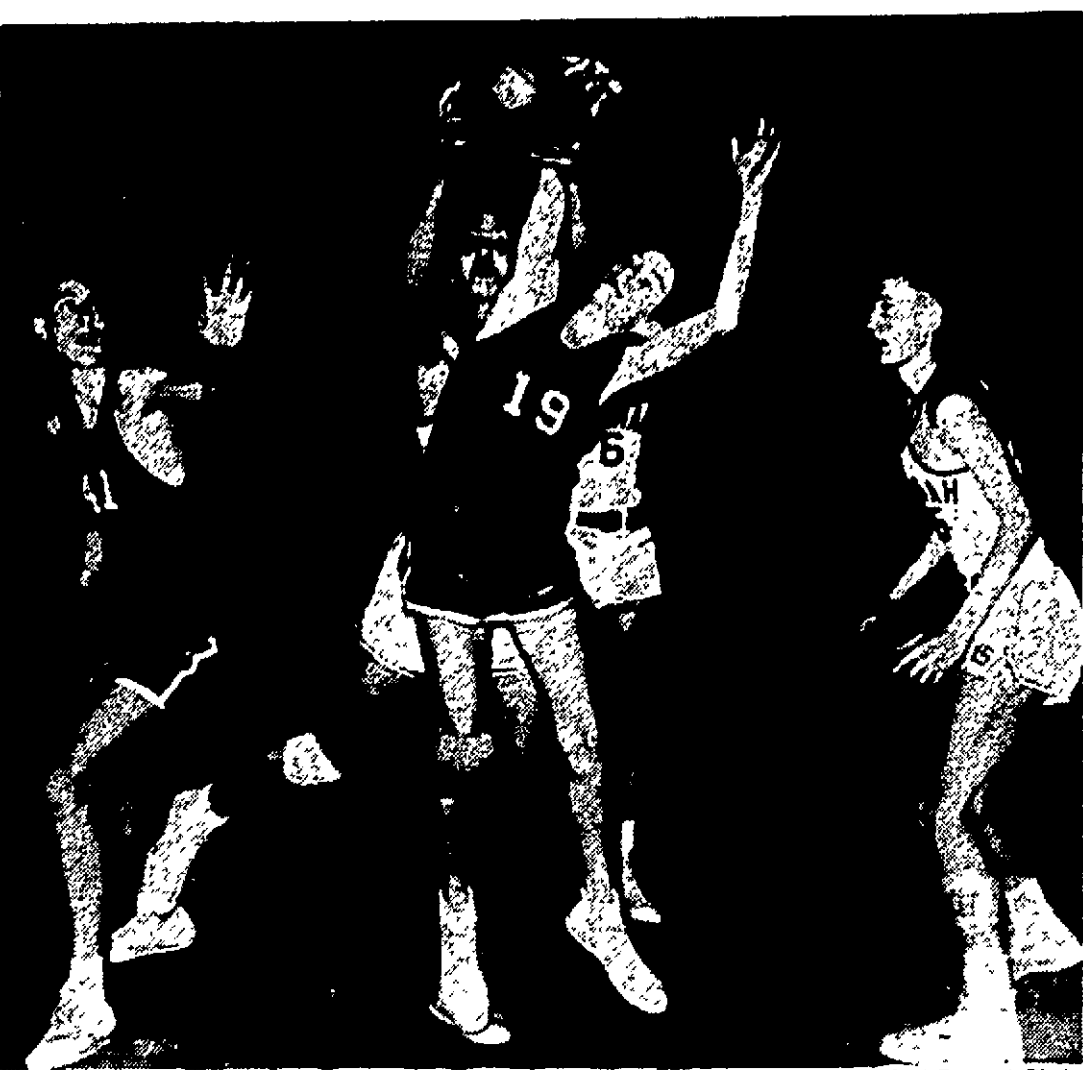

Teammate Darrell Jansen, last year's No. 3 scorer, had 24 in the same game to hold second place and Dave Ristau of Menasha is third with the 23 he garnered against Neenah.

The fourth scorer to post a 20-point night was Mike Zingler of Clintonville, who had that exact total.

Other marksmen with 15 or more points are Jeff Bocher, Two Rivers, 19, Steve Heller, Shawano, and Tom Lawrence, Two Rivers, 18; Leroy Weyenberg, last year's scoring champ, and Ron Hoppe, Shawano, 17; Leon Westphal, Clintonville, Bill Ritchie, Menasha, and Dick Wilson, Neenah, 16, and Tom Laux, New London, 15.

Marinette in Lone Non-League Contest

Marinette — Marinette Central Catholic is host to Stephenson, Mich., tonight in the only game involving a Fox Valley Catholic conference team. The Cavaliers hold league wins over Pennings and Fremont plus non-conference decisions over Marinette and Menominee High schools.

NHS, Jays Tackle Two Weekend Foes

Rocket Quint Plays Host To Clints; Menasha Away

Neenah — After three straight out-of-town contests, Neenah will return home to face Clintonville Saturday night in the second half of the weekend's Mid-Eastern conference double program. The Rockets are at Shawano this evening.

Menasha entertains Two Rivers tonight and it invades Kimberly Saturday night for the second half of its twin bill.

Thus far in home games, Neenah is unbeaten, defeating Fond du Lac and Wisconsin Rapids. Away from home, it topped Ripon and bowed to Menasha.

The Bluejays, on their own boards, defeated the Rockets and dropped a 1-point decision to Appleton while in their out-of-town assignment, they defeated West De Pere but were downed by Manitowoc.

In last year's meetings against tonight's foes, Menasha lost to Two Rivers 70-63 in an overtime at Two Rivers and bowed by a 61-51 margin in the meeting here.

Neenah fell to Shawano 74-49 at home but gained some measure of revenge with a 69-67 triumph in the Shawano encounter.

In tangles against Saturday foes, the Rockets defeated Clintonville 58-46 at the Truck-city and 59-58 here, despite a 32-point effort by the Clints' Leon Westphal.

The Jays fell to Kimberly 70-62 the first time but the Papermakers had an easier time in their second meeting, taking a 77-56 triumph.

Macs Meet to Make Final Game Plans

Menasha — A committee to make final arrangements for next week's Mac - Harlem Magician game will be named at a special meeting of the Menasha Athletic association at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the clubrooms.

Mac officials said the meeting is being held in the afternoon because of a lack of attendance at recent evening sessions. The group also will make plans for the annual meeting, scheduled for Jan. 3.

Chilton Man May Appeal Conviction

Circuit Court Finds Hugh Lavey Guilty Of Game Violation

Chilton — Hugh Lavey, route 3, Chilton, found guilty of a fishing violation in circuit court Wednesday, may enter an appeal to a higher court.

Lavey's attorney, Roman Papka, Milwaukee, was granted a 30-day stay from Judge Helmut F. Arps' sentence of a fine of $50, and suspension of hunting and fishing privileges for one year.

The case reached circuit court by an appeal after Lavey was found guilty at an Oct. 7 justice court trial charging him with taking game fish without a hook and line.

The original complaint was brought against Lavey by Richard Harris, fish and game supervisor of the Oshkosh conservation district. Lavey was said to have picked two stunned pike from the waters of Lake Winnebago while observing commercial rough fish netting operations Sept. 29.

Lavey and his companion, Walter Menzies, a Butler, Wis., attorney, maintained the fish were dead and were being picked up for use as an exhibit at public hearings protesting the netting operations being carried on on the lake.

Harris said the department considered the case highly important. An acquittal, he said, would establish a precedent allowing fishermen to gather around the commercial and conservation department boats like sea gulls waiting to grab stunned game fish.

Rural Fremont Man Pays $230 In Forfeitures

Oshkosh — Raymond Munding, route 2, Fremont, paid forfeitures totaling $230 to the sheriff's department for driving too fast for conditions, failing to report an accident, and driving after revocation of license.

Raymond J. Boileau, 1274 E. North Water street, Neenah, forfeited $56 for speeding and an arterial violation. Speeding in a restricted zone cost Dave C. Jung, 804 Broad street, Menasha, $80.

Robert J. Aylesworth, 244 E. Doty street, Neenah, paid $15 for an arterial violation. Albert L. Wolter, Winneconne, forfeited $25 for hit and run driving.

Charge Dismissed

Oshkosh — The case against Richard J. Bork, Jr., 522 Washington avenue, Neenah, was dismissed by Municipal Judge S. J. Luchsinger Thursday morning after Bork was found innocent of a charge of failing to obey a traffic signal in Oshkosh on Nov. 29.

Charlie Goes Historical to Give Lowdown on Christmas Customs

BY CHARLES HOUSE
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Christmas is coming, and while it is here we will observe it with strange and varied customs — few of which belong to the happy season.

Historically speaking, for example, Santa Claus has nothing whatsoever to do with Christmas. St. Nicholas died on Dec. 6, 343 A. D., but never in his lifetime did he embody the Christmas period as he does now.

After his death folks just sort of let his day come into the Christmas period. But he doesn't really belong there. Furthermore, Santa Claus was a thin man—and bearded.

Giving presents to friends and loved ones during the joyous season is not historically a part and parcel of Christmas. Years ago, it was the custom for people to give presents on New Year's day.

It was only due to the influence of St. Augustine that the custom has come to us.

Reason for Change

St. Augustine (354-430 A.D.) thought the giving of gifts on New Year's Day was "diabolical." He thought and said that gift giving be changed to the Christmas season because, he said, the feeling of good will and kindness and generosity belong to the Christmas season and not to the New Year.

So, because a man who lived 1,500 and more years ago decided we ought to — that's the reason we exchange gifts at Christmas time.

The word "yule" now signifies the Christmas time, but — historically — it has nothing to do with it. The ancient Goths and Saxons who lived long before the advent of Christ had a pagan custom of burning what they called "jule" logs to celebrate the winter solstice. And since they were pagans and pre-Christ, how could "jule" imply the Christmas season?

The word Christmas is not truly correct — historically speaking, for it is a misnomer. In ancient English it was Christes' messe — which meant "Christ's mass."

Christmas Tree

The Christmas tree predates the birth of Christ and hence cannot be a basic Christmas custom — historically speaking. Although nobody knows with accuracy whence the Christmas tree custom arose, it undoubtedly came down to us through the impetus given it by the Germans.

One ancient document hanging of the Christmas tree introduced the Christmas-evening stocking. But the plan was born, perhaps, of selfishness. English kids knew a fact that the Dutch kids didn't — stockings stretch!

The tradition of Christmas parties is not a basic one with a Christmas-time origin. It was not until 521 years after the birth of Christ that seasonal partying got under way. The first community Christmas party on record was observed in York, England, in 521 by King Arthur and his subjects.

The masses took to the custom and such festivals flourished over a period of many years. At long last they became orgies, for they lasted for 12 days during which most of the populace did nothing more than carouse and get plastered. Nobody worked during this 12-day bacchanal.

Winneconne High Music Groups to Present Concert

Winneconne — Choral and band music will be presented at the annual Christmas concert of the Winneconne High school music department at 2 p.m. Sunday. Directors for the program will be Robert Reed for the band and Mrs. Dorothy Olson for the vocal groups.

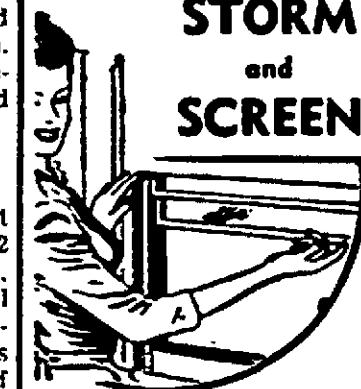

The art department under the direction of Mrs. Geraldine Miller has designed and built backgrounds resembling stained glass windows.

One of the band numbers will be "The Toy Shop" for which Bonnie Keough will be narrator. A baritone-trombone duet will be played by Gary Vohs and Dick Wentzel in "The Christmas Party" and "Panis Angelicus" selections of the band.

Soloists during the mixed chorus part of the program will be Dick Helgeson, Jim Allen and David O'Connell while Carol Wentzel will play a flute obbligato. Accompanist for the program will be Luona Hanneman.

The sixth grade chorus and girls glee club also will sing with the latter group presenting "Twas the Night Before Christmas."

Woekner Team Wins Dart Crown

Cops Two Games; Second Half Play Begins on Jan. 7

Neenah — Woekner's won the first round championship in the Neenah Municipal Dartball league by winning two of three games from Stecker's Thursday night at the Recreation building.

Stecker's won the first game 5-4 but Woekner's took the next two 25-8 and 10-5. Louis Helmke's 12-19 led Woekner's, and Gertrude Helmke hit 9-19 for Stecker's.

Haase and Drews, which had an opportunity to move into the lead, downed Lakeview 5-3 in the first match but then lost 10-8 and 14-12. Charles Domro had 13-18 for Lakeview and Bill Page hit 7-17 for H-D.

Tews beat Keil and Werner 7-1 and 7-3, losing the second game 1-0. Harry Retzlaff's 10-18 led Tews and Laura Law had 8-16 for the K-W entry.

It was United Pattern by 5-4, 4-1 and 4-3 over Schultz Paint. Cyrena Sprister hit 8-20 for U-P and Jim Law had 8-18 for the Schultz team.

Final first round standings are Woekner's 19-5, Stecker's 18-6, Haase and Drews 17-7, Lakeview 14-10, Keil and Werner and United Pattern 8-16, Tews 7-17 and Schultz Paint 5-19. Second round play gets underway on Jan. 7.

If big Jerry Lucas wasn't enough to make Ohio State look tough, Larry Siegfried now has come along to keep the Buckeyes unbeaten in major college basketball.

With the 6-8 Lucas scoring 30 points under the boards and Siegfried, 6-4, poppin' in 22 points from the outside, Ohio State won its fifth in a row Thursday night, spilling previously - unbeaten St. Louis, 81-74, on the Billikens' home court.

While Lucas duelled with the Bills' 6-10 Bob Nordmann under the boards, Siegfried, who had been averaging less than 13 points a game, hit six of seven shots as the Bucks built a 6-point bulge at the half, 44-38. The Billikens three times led by one before Nordmann fouled out midway in the second half.

Lucas had only a 16-15 scoring edge on Nordmann at the half. Nordmann who had been averaging 18 points a game, finished with 17, while teammate George Burkel scored 20.

Georgia Tech stretched its 2-season winning streak to 12 games with its fifth victory of the campaign, a 70-64 road success over South Carolina. Unbeaten Utah State won its fourth, 71-66 at Iowa State after trailing the previously undefeated Cyclones by one at the half.

Badgers Play Undefeated Loyola Five

Madison — The University of Wisconsin basketball team, winless in three starts, will try to make the victory column Saturday against a team that has won the three games it has played. Wisconsin's foe is Loyola of Chicago, winner over Wayne, Western Ontario and Creighton.

Badger Coach John Erickson, said he would start junior letterman Bob Rossin in the center spot. Rossin, at 6-7, is Wisconsin's tallest player.

Unbeaten UW-M Jars St. Norbert

By The Associated Press
The University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee basketball team Thursday night crushed St. Norbert, 101-61.
The undefeated Cardinals gained a 52-29 halftime lead and used reserves most of the way in the final period.
Jack Miserski was high scorer for UW-M with 22 points, while Bill Feller paced the Green Knights with 18.

Former Ring Great Tony Canzoneri Dies

Won 3 Titles, Earned $500,000 With His Fists

BY ORLO ROBERTSON

New York — Tony Canzoneri, who carried his boxing gloves for 10 years, died of a heart attack last night.

Canzoneri, who won the featherweight, lightweight and junior welterweight titles was found dead Thursday in a $21-a-week midtown hotel room. Medical authorities said the 51-year-old scrapper apparently had died of natural causes two days ago.

When Canzoneri failed to show for two days at the Broadway restaurant which paid him for the use of his name, a friend, Norman Schwartz, checked the hotel. The former champion was found dead lying across a bed, clad in his underwear.
The word quickly spread up and down Broadway.
Exciting Days
In front of the restaurant, where Tony held court each night for those who remembered back to the exciting days in the 1920s and early 1930s, many of his friends clustered. They talked in allmost hushed tones of the man with the big smile who won 140 fights, lost 24 and drew in 11 and then, after his retirement in 1939, joined comedian Joey Adams in a successful night club act.

Purses were not always big in his days, but Canzoneri earned more than $500,000 with his fists. He met all the top fighters of his time — Johnny Dundee, Benny Bass, Kid Chocolate, Bud Taylor, Lou Ambers, Bushy Graham, Joe Sabro, Sammy Mandell, Al Singer, Jackie "Kid" Berg, Stan Loayza, Billy Petrolle, Wes Ramey, Baby Arizmendi.

Warriors Play South Dakota State Tonight

Milwaukee — The Marquette will seek its third victory in four starts tonight when it takes on an underdog South Dakota State team in a basketball game at the Arena.
The Jackrabbits, defending North Central conference champions, have a 1-3 record this year.
The team was hurt before the season got underway when Marlin Van Don Kide, a 6-8 center and leading scorer last year, did not return to school.

Marciano to Work Under Goldman For 'Few Days'

Dallas — Rocky Marciano's former trainer said Thursday he would meet the former heavyweight champion in Florida next week to help him work out.
Charlie Goldman, 71, said "I got a call from Rocky just a week ago. He said he had a friend who owns a gym down in Fort Lauderdale and would I come down for a few days. Said he'd like to do a little work. I'm going to meet him in Miami right after this fight."
"I don't know whether he just wants to feel himself out or what. But it's the first time he's called me about working with him at all," Goldman said.

Gary Scovel, Hackworthy Named 'MV'

BY JOHN L. PAUSTIAN

Appleton's Jim Schulze and Beaver Dam's Bob Smith will lead the Lawrence college football team in 1960 as the Vikings seek to continue the comeback begun this year.

The selections of Schulze, an all-Midwest conference back, and Smith, a reliable offensive tackle and hard-as-nails linebacker, as the new co-captains were announced during Thursday night's Viking fall sports award banquet in Colman hall.
Recipients of other major honors at the Appleton Quarterback club-sponsored event were:

- 1. Dave Hackworthy and Gary Scovel—most valuable lineman and back, respectively, for 1959.
- 2. "Chuck" Collins — cross country captain-elect.
- 3. Fred Flom and Tom Schinabeck — honorary co-captains of the '59 freshman football team.

Re-Lives Highlights
Though the final whistle of the '59 season had blown nearly five weeks earlier, Coach Bernie Heselton relived with his audience the highlights of the eight games which saw Lawrence produce a 4-4 record. He paid tribute to the '59 team for "getting us back where we belong" but added,

Gillman Is Cause of Rams' Trouble, Asserts Tom Fears

Palo Alto, Calif. — Ask Tom Fears what's wrong with the Los Angeles Rams and he answers: "Sid Gillman."
The former great end, here to watch the Green Bay Packers prepare for their game with the 49ers in San Francisco Sunday, says:

Close to Players
"I realize that a guy doesn't make friends when he says just what he thinks but I've played with the Rams, I've always watched them and I've been close to players and former players.
"The first year Gillman coached us, we all thought he was a good coach. The second year, he changed completely. He became a tyrant.

Packers Getting Keyed Up; Colts Bid for Clear Title

Baltimore Is 12-Point Favorite

Los Angeles — A favored Baltimore Colt football team arrives in town today determined to whip the Los Angeles Rams Saturday and escape any possible playoff for the Western division title of the National Football League.

The defending champion Colts are picked by as much as 12 points to inflict the tenth defeat of the season on the Rams in the final game for each in the regular NFL season.

The struggle, with some 60,000 expected in Memorial coliseum, will be televised nationally by the Columbia Broadcasting system.

Eye Clear Title
The Colts, with an 8-3 record, can gain the clear title if they win. But if they lose—and the San Francisco 49ers win over Green Bay and the Chicago Bears take Detroit—there will be a 3-way tie for the division crown.

The Colts take the field with their usual troops.
That means the Rams will have to contend with quarterback Johnny Unitas, halfback Lenny Moore, fullback Alan Ameche and such dangerous pass-catchers as Ray Berry and Jim Mutscheller.

They will also encounter one of pro football's most formidable defensive platoons, notable Gino Marchetti, "Big Daddy" Lipscomb, Art Donovan, Don Joyce, Milt Davis, Don Shinnick and others.

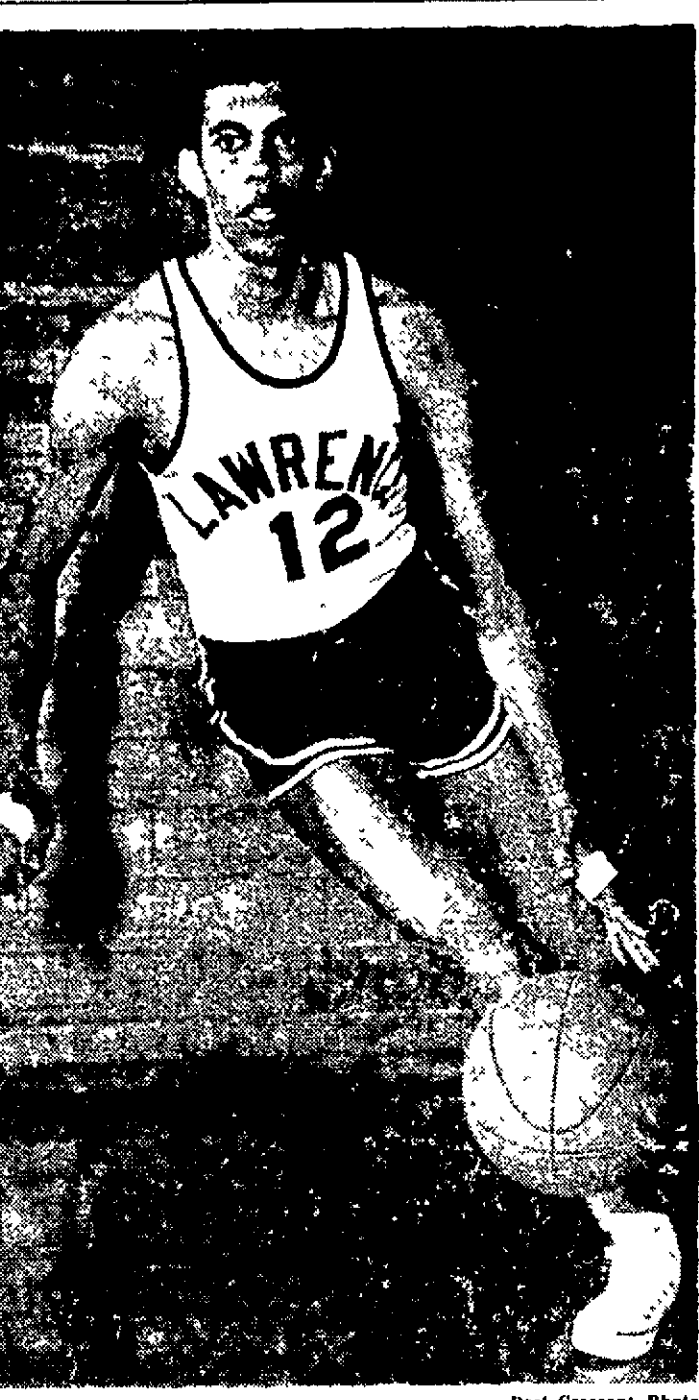

The Rams have absentees due to injuries. Their offensive unit will have Billy Wade at quarterback, with Joe Marconi replacing Ollie Matson as the starting fullback.
Jon Arnett and Jim Phillips go at halfback, with Del Shofner and Leon Clarke on the flanks.

Les Richter again will be pressed into dual duty as offensive center and part-time linebacker, with rookie John Guzack spelling him at the latter position.

White Sox Sign 'Big Bear' Garcia

Chicago — Mike Garcia, 36, former "Big Bear" of the Indian pitching staff, Thursday was signed as a free agent by the White Sox.

Garcia, a big winner for the Tribe in the early 1950's, was released by Cleveland after the 1959 season in which he had a 3-6 record in 72 innings. He made eight starts and had one complete game.
(Garcia pitched for Appleton in the old Wisconsin State league in the early 1940s).

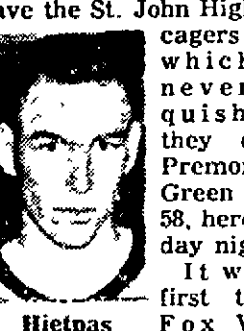

Sophomore George Gray will make his first Lawrence college varsity home start tonight when the Vikings entertain Monmouth at 7:30.

St. John '5' Wins FVCC Inaugural

Hietpas Scores 21 in 66-58 Decision Over Premontre

BY JIM HARP

Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Little Chute—A short scoring spurt just before halftime gave the St. John High school cagers a lead which they never relinquished as they defeated Premontre of Green Bay, 66-58, here Thursday night.

It was the first taste of Catholic conference action for St. John and boosted the Chutes above the .500 mark for the season with a 3-2 record. Premontre has dropped three straight league games.

Put on Press
With 33 seconds left in the first half, Coach Bill Fitzpatrick's Dutchmen put on a press which threw confusion into the Cadet attack. St. John had been trailing, 18-17, but in those 33 seconds they stole the ball twice and converted each steal in a basket.

Dave Koss canned a pair of free throws to give the Chutes a 19-18 lead and with the press on, Andy Ebben and Mike Bongers each bagged a field goal to make it 23-18 at the intermission.
For the second half, St. John had 18-17 scoring edge in the third period and a 25-23 margin the final eight minutes.

The Dutchmen had one of their better nights from the field as they hit at a 36 per cent field goal clip. Fifteen of the 23 St. John baskets came in the second half when the offense for both teams opened up.

Harland Hietpas, 6-3 center, was the mainstay of the Chute attack as he hit four field goals in each half and added five of six free throws for 21 markers, high for the game.
Ed Hammen sparked the Chutes in the second half, getting 16 points after being held to a lone free throw in the first two periods. Ebben held the Dutchmen in the game in the final stanza with eight of his 15 points in that quarter.

Both teams had trouble getting started in the first half. St. John had an 11-9 advantage after the first period and the short flurry gave them the 23-18 lead at the half. At the 3-quarter mark it was 41-35.
Premontre's high-scoring Scott Denissen was held to one field goal and four free throws. Randy Dave Dobesh led the Cadet scoring with 17, while Darrell DeSteffen had 16.

49ers Make 5 Changes In Lineup

BY ART DALEY

Post-Crescent News Service
Palo Alto, Calif. — The Packers are getting all keyed up for a big last-game effort.

It's a treat to see the Packers practice with such interest and content on California soil in December. That always wasn't the case in the past, you know.

Coach Vince Lombardi noted the spirit of the team in Thursday's rip-snorting workout: "they're working hard, and I'm glad to see it at this stage of the season."

'A Good Taste'
Lombardi added: "I hope we can leave a good taste in everybody's mouth for the winter. We can do it by playing them a good game."

Lombardi, of course, insists on dead-certain interest, and now it's second nature with the Bays... he "got on" the boys a bit Wednesday, explaining later that "maybe some of us are a little too satisfied." This wasn't necessary yesterday.

The Packers are expecting murder regardless of who wins the Ram-Colt game Saturday afternoon. If the Rams upset Baltimore, the 49ers can gain a playoff berth by whipping Green Bay. If the Colts win, the 49ers are out of it. In that case, however, the 49ers can snatch around $400 in second place money by tripping the Bays. Green Bay could get a share of No. 2 dough if the Packers, Lions (over Bears) and Colts win.

The 49ers figure to be somewhat ornery Sunday. They lost three out of their last four games and the press here has been yipping because the offense has scored only 48 points in the last three games — 14 each in two losses to the Colts and 21 in a win over the Browns.

"Frisco Coach 'Red' Hickey isn't happy about it either and he blames 'too many little mistakes.' "Red" has announced five lineup changes in an effort to shore up his club. The major changes have C. R. Roberts replacing the injured Joe Perry at fullback and R. C. Owens going instead of hurt Clyde Connor at left end.

Thomas at Tackle
The other switches are also in the offensive team, John Thomas going to left tackle, John Wittenborn at left guard and Karl Rubke at center.

The Packers, by comparison, have scored 83 points in their last three games (all victories), and the only changes in the personnel were made several weeks ago when Bart Starr took over at quarterback and Boyd Dowler at third end or right halfback.

Hickey confessed that "our biggest problems are Starr and Dowler. We didn't see them in the earlier game (in

Pond's Suffers First Defeat, 56-48, In Men's Action

Dale Realty (2-0) plays Y's Men (0-2) and Leath Furniture (2-0) meets Berggren's (1-1) next Monday in games involving the unbeaten co-leaders of the Appleton YMCA Men's Basketball league.

Monday's other contest pairs Hoepfner's (0-2) and Pond's (1-1).

Dale handed Pond's its first loss, 56-48, in latest action. Jim Kirkland whipped home 19 for Dale while Emory Elbe coined 19 for Pond's. Leath downed Hoepfner's, 61-58, paced by the 24-point scoring of Arvid McGuire and the fine rebounding and 21 tallies of John Jooss.

Berggren's topped the Y's Men, 43-32, though Dr. Bill Chandler of the losers collected 17 points for game honors.

Layne Nears NFL All-Time Mark For Yards Passing

Pittsburgh —A— Bobby Layne, passing wizard for the Pittsburgh Steelers, is only 224 yards away from setting a new all-time forward passing record in the National Football league.

The current record of 22,085 yards was set by Sammy Baugh in 16 seasons with the Washington Redskins.

Layne has gained 21,882 yards through the air in 12 years in the NFL.

With a good performance Sunday, Layne could break the record as the Steelers wind up the 1959 season against the Chicago Cardinals at Forbes field.

Vikings Meet Buc Swimmers

Short-Handed Lawrence Opens Season Saturday

Minus Dick Bjornson and Mike Lepawsky—two all-time Lawrence college swimming greats who graduated last June—the Viking swim team opens its 1959 season Saturday at Beloit.

Bjornson and Lepawsky were bright spots during otherwise unspectacular seasons, and now that they're gone, Lawrence prospects for the immediate future appear dim.

Coach Gene Davis is currently working with four lettermen and only four other prospects. The monogram winners include: senior captain Pete Switzer, breast stroke, butterfly and free style man; and juniors Jon Pearl and Don Patterson, free stylists, and Fred Sherman, back stroke and free style.

Among the missing is Mike Murphy, 1959 Midwest conference diving champ who would have co-captained the current club, with Switzer. He's in the Air Force. Several promising members of last season's freshman team are also gone.

Other candidates include: juniors Tim Fairchild and free flyer Dave Butterfield, sophomore diver Marty Green and senior diver Tad Pinkerton. Fairchild, a 6-foot, 5-inch breast stroke man, recently dropped from the Viking basketball squad.

Pinkerton, Lawrence cross-country and track star is a senior who is out for the team for the first time. Lawrence was 1-6 in Midwest conference action and 1-9 overall last season but finished third in the conference meet.

The 1959-60 schedule: Dec. 12 at Beloit; Jan. 9 at LaCrosse State; Jan. 16 at Beloit; Jan. 23 at Beloit; Feb. 13 at Beloit; Feb. 19 at Carleton; Feb. 26 at St. Olaf; Feb. 27 at Michigan Tech. March 4-5 Conference meet (at Knox).

Bobby Layne Signs New 2-Year Contract

Pittsburgh —A— Quarterback Bobby Layne says his new 2-year contract with the Pittsburgh Steelers is as good as a life-time pact in that he hopes to wind up his National Football league career with the Steelers.

"Pittsburgh is my last stop. I hope to play here at least three or four more seasons."

Chances Slim That NFL Title Tilt to be on TV in Host City

Philadelphia —A— Chances are the National Football league will televise its championship game in the Western division city where it is played appear remote.

Commissioner Austin Gunzel said Thursday it is league policy "to protect those people who pay for tickets to the game. We can't take their money and then offer the game free in that area on television."

In New York, Tom Gallery, sports director of the National Broadcasting co., said flatly "there will be no closed circuit TV. NBC owns all rights and has sold these rights to a sponsor. If we were going to televise in Baltimore or any other home city, we would put the game on free."

The statements came after the commissioner received a petition from Baltimore residents to have the championship game televised there if the Colts win the Western division title this Saturday.

Phil Peterson from Baltimore residents to have the championship game televised there if the Colts win the Western division title this Saturday. If he's 76-35, with Kent Anderson they will meet the New York Giants, winners in the Eastern Division, Dec. 27.

Velella's Troubles May Make 'Ingo' Free Agent

Promoter Pleads Innocent to Indictments; Several Groups Wish to Sign Johansson

New York —A— Politician-promoter Vincent J. Velella's legal troubles may make Ingo Ingemar Johansson a free agent.

At least that was the viewpoint of Johansson's adviser, Swedish promoter Edwin Ahlquist, when he learned Velella had been indicted by a New York county grand jury on a 2-count charge of perjury.

Ahlquist today insisted Johansson is as eager as ever to give former champion Floyd Patterson a return fight.

There are at least two reasons for "Ingo's" desire to take on Patterson again. The unbeaten Swede dropped "Pat" seven times and stopped him in the third round at Yankee stadium last June 26.

Ingo thinks Floyd will be just as easy the second time. And, secondly, the Swedes believe they can make the most money with Patterson.

Other Groups If Velella and his group are by-passed, there are several other organizations anxious to sign "Ingo." These include Joe Tepper's New York firm, which wants to stage a Johansson-Patterson return at Yankee stadium in June, and the two rival British promoters, Jack Solomons, now at Göteborg for talks, and Harry Levene.

Solomons and Levene each have offered Johansson more than $200,000 to defend his crown against British Champion Henry Cooper in London this spring.

Velella, who holds the contract for the Johansson-Patterson return, Thursday pleaded innocent on the indictments and was freed in $1,000 bail to await trial. No date was set.

The indictments stem from investigations by the grand jury and New York State Athletic commission into the promotion of the first fight.

In the indictment, Dist. Atty. Frank Hogan charged Velella, an East Harlem Republican leader, with being "a front" for Anthony "Fat Tony" Salerno, an ex-convict and underworld figure, in the June promotion.

Bluejay '9' Selects 1960 Officials

A slate of officers and a new business manager have been named by the board of directors of the newly-formed Green Bay Bluejays corporation, which plans to operate the Green Bay Bluejays next season.

Fred Schlapman will serve as president, Russell Switzer as vice president, Gerald Libman, secretary, and Clifford Anderson, treasurer.

Robert Conrad was appointed business manager of the club. Conrad, 33, aided in the reactivation of baseball in Green Bay two years ago. He played semi-pro baseball in the Northern State league and performed with the Green Bay Gulls in the Fox River Valley league and was president of the Gulls.

He was given a 1-year contract.

Foss Expects AFL Signings To Speed Up

Thinks Rosters Will Grow After Bowl Games End

Dallas, Tex. —A— Joe Foss, commissioner of the new American Football league, says that as a child he wanted to be baseball commissioner.

"Of course my thoughts were of baseball then, but pro football now has gained great popularity and I am proud to be commissioner in it," he said Thursday at his first Dallas press conference.

Foss, 44, was a Marine air ace in World War II and served two terms as governor of South Dakota.

The 8-team league is scheduled to start its first season in 1960 and Foss said one of his biggest problems is "getting coaches and players lined up so we can get our teams on the field."

He expects the signing of players, which has been happening almost daily, to increase after the bowl games are over.

Foss does not expect a fight between his league and the established National Football league or the Canadian league.

"But I think I'll recognize a fight and know what to do," he said. "I think the other leagues will realize we are here to stay."

After graduation, Ralph returned to St. Mary and started to turn out winning basketball and baseball teams. He's been cutting down on the baseball coaching lately, since he finds that his insurance business and heading a family with nine children keeps him busy enough.

Foxes Director McClone, a director of the Fox Cities Foxes Baseball club, is a brother of Foxes' President Ray McClone and a cousin of veteran Bear Creek High Basketball Mentor Frank McClone.

Trademarks of McClone's teams are great speed and hustle, both on defense and offense. He's had success, over the years, with the full-court pressing defense and fast-breaking.

Since his system has little room for individual stars (with the exception of Dibellus and possibly, Dean Schreiner of the current club) he doesn't hesitate to substitute when his starters get tired from the run, run, run. In a close game, Ralph is a perpetual motion (and sound) machine on the bench.

He tried to schedule the Zephyrs' foes in the 1959 state catholic championship game, Racine St. Catherine, for this season but was unable to. But, it's quite possible defending champion St. Catherine and runnerup St. Mary—both with four regulars back—will meet again come tournament time.

Foxes Business Manager Bob Willis met some big baseball "names" and renewed acquaintances with others during his stay in Florida at the minor league convention last week.

Willis attended a party for major league managers and had a long talk with new Milwaukee skipper Charlie Dressen.

Willis flew to Florida on a plane with top officials of the Cubs, White Sox and Braves. He viewed a Braves-Orioles Winter Instructional league game with almost every Milwaukee club official.

Former big league slugger Eddie Robinson, an instructor in the Orioles farm system, is "just about the nicest guy I've ever met," said Willis, who took time out for church with former Giant pitching great Hal Schumacher.

Willis also had conversations with onetime Appleton

Eagles Rehire Shaw for Another Year

Philadelphia —A— The Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football league announced today that Coach Lawrence T. "Buck" Shaw has been rehired for the 1960 season.

Terms were not disclosed. The silver-haired, 60-year-old Shaw said he was "indeed happy" to be asked to return. He made it clear, however, he would retire from the coaching profession at the end of the 1960 season. The former Notre Dame star lineman has been coaching since 1922.

Quarterback Norm Van Brocklin would be his likely successor. Shaw took over the Eagles in 1958 after nine years as head coach of San Francisco 49ers and two years as mentor of the Air Force Academy.

Papermaker Manager Ed Dancsak, now a Phillies scout, and Warren Giles, brother of Mrs. Ralph Miedke, Neenah.

Menasha's native Don Biebel, now travelling secretary of the Cubs, told Willis he thoroughly enjoys his new job.

Thornton Eligible For 2 More Years

Holcomb Seeks Financial Aid Concession at Big 10 Parley

Chicago—Athletic Director Stu Holcomb of Northwestern, elated that the Wildcats' star quarterback, Dick Thornton, has been granted an extra year of eligibility, today seeks another concession at the Big Ten business meetings.

Holcomb, chairman of a committee surveying the financial aid plan, will review findings and is expected to urge that such aid be granted without the need factor. He argues that help to athletes, based on a need ratio determined by financial statements filed by parents, is opening the door to outside recruiting.

The brilliant Thornton, considered a strong All-American candidate after a sensational 1958 sophomore year, led Northwestern to a 45-13 victory over Oklahoma in the 1959 opener.

Trips on Loose Sod The following week, the Wildcats began their Big Ten campaign at Iowa. Thornton took the opening kickoff, tripped on some loose sod and broke an ankle that shelved him for the season.

Because he saw only nine seconds of conference competition, faculty men granted him another year of eligibility, giving him two more seasons in all.

Other items put over until today's session include a report from the TV committee on a 3-year $3,000,000 offer to televise Big Ten football, basketball and other sports, and action on controls of future Rose bowl participation.

Faculty men made it clear yesterday that athletic control is firmly in their hands and not divided with athletic directors.

Although directors now have one vote, the same as faculty men, the faculty group stipulated that substantive legislation would go under the White resolution (a 60-day review period by each institution) only by faculty representative vote.

Fullmer, Brown 'Co-Fighters Of the Month'

Ortiz Dropped From No. 1 Position Among Lightweights

New York—Lightweight champion Joe Brown and NBA middleweight king Gene Fullmer today were named to share "fighter of the month" honors by Ring magazine for their successful title defenses.

Brown, of New Orleans, stopped England's Dave Charlton on a sixth round technical knockout. Fullmer, of West Jordan, Utah, won a unanimous decision in 15 rounds over "Spider" Webb of Chicago.

The monthly ring ratings showed changes in every division except the featherweight class.

Carlos Ortiz of New York was dropped from the No. 1 lightweight contender's position for inactivity and replaced by Paolo Rossi, Italian-born New Yorker.

Former welterweight and middleweight champion Carmen Basilio, who has been idle, was shifted from third to fifth among the middleweights in exchange of positions with Germany's Gustav Scholz.

Billy Hunter of Detroit made the biggest jump among the heavyweights. He advanced from eighth to sixth.

In the lightweight class, the retirement of Canadian Yvon Durelle and Jesse Bowdry's loss to Henry Hank of Detroit resulted in several shifts. Bowdry, of St. Louis, fell from the fourth to fifth.

Mike Holt of South Africa was promoted from fifth to third and Von Clay of Philadelphia jumped from sixth to fourth. Hank, a middleweight, leaped from ninth to sixth among the 160-pounders.

Pay Off Day at Hand

Golembiewski Retains WIB Tourney Lead

Chicago—Today is up his productive day by payoff day in the World Invitational Bowling tournament, and it looks as if a dogfight is shaping up for the finish of the 9-day $30,000 ten-pin marathon.

As the 16 men finalists start firing their final 16 games of the 64-game head-to-head competition, three of the country's top bowlers were closely bunched at the top.

Leading after 48 games was Bill Golembiewski, of the A. B. C. champions from Detroit. He held onto the top spot he had taken Wednesday although he lost four of his last eight games.

His lead was slim and his closest competitors were seasoned pros, Ray Bluth and Don Carter, both of St. Louis.

Golembiewski's Petersen point total was 240.31 on the strength of 304 games won and a total pinfall of 10,506.

Bluth ABC Masters champion, had 239.33 points with his 30 wins and 10,483 pinfall.

Vaults Into 3rd Carter, 1957 world champion and four times all-star titleholder, had 236.27 points. Carter vaulted into third place after a poor start. He has won 27 of his first 48 games and has knocked down 10,477 pins.

Golembiewski and Bluth split their 4-game series Thursday and each split their final two series. Carter wound

"We won't settle for 4-4" in the future.

Heselton intimated that not even the championship is out of the realm of possibility next year if the returning lettermen and sophomores-to-be make an all-out effort.

The win over Carleton was picked by Heselton as the big moment of the season and he stated it "rates with the great games played by a Lawrence team."

Heselton said all of the seven junior lettermen — Smith, Schulze, Joe Lamers, Mike Ulwelling, John Dunning, Bill Whitmore and Ashley Haase — could have qualified as captains.

"Really Arrived" The coach said Schulze "really arrived this season... was 100 per cent improved... and really took charge of the team."

Heselton declared that Smith became "a good tackle, a better punter and a great linebacker" in 1959.

Lamers and Dunning rank as probably the toughest pair of defensive ends in the conference, said Heselton. The veteran coach added that Whitmore "played a lot of clutch ball for us," and that Ulwelling "came further than anyone else this season..."

and in the Carleton game, like the coaches, became convinced that he is a great ball player."

Hackworthy and Scovel, who were picked for the MV accolades by votes of their teammates, each received a large trophy donated by Charles Pond.

Heselton said Scovel was "a great player" this year and became much more than only a ball carrier. He was a crack defensive player and blocker as well.

Heselton called Hackworthy "one of the top three blocking centers" he has coached. He pointed out that Hackworthy became an excellent linebacker and made very few bad passes in three seasons as regular center.

Injury Jinx Rick Ramsey, an outgoing co-captain along with Hackworthy, was praised for his inspirational leadership in the face of an injury jinx that plagued him for the second time in his three seasons.

"When he played, he rated with the best defensive backs," said Heselton.

Heselton termed Gil Sutherland one of the fastest linemen he's had at Lawrence and a fine downfield blocker. For all four of his football years at Lawrence (including his freshman season) Sutherland probably worked harder in practice than any other player, in Heselton's estimation.

Charlie Scruggs was praised by his coach for his "great comeback" in '59 and for his "terrific" defensive play. Heselton called Doug Millard "the most improved player" on the team and lauded Mike Gilboy for his three years of top effort despite the fact that he never became a regular. "If I had 35 guys like you every year," Heselton told Gilboy, "we'd have good football."

Controls Good Football Doug Logan, who came to Lawrence without any football background, was commended for the diligence that turned him into a good player. "I've never seen anyone control his man like Logan controlled (Jim) Simmons in the Grinnell game," said Heselton. (Simmons was to become an all-conference end).

Mark Rodman, the ninth player slated to be lost by graduation, was cited for his contribution despite an injury.

Heselton also introduced and spoke briefly about each of the seven sophomore lettermen (Dan Brink, Darrow Glockner, Bob Landis, Bill Mayer, Pete Thomas, Mel Beyer and Tom Walker) and of the six soph squad members who missed earning a letter. They are Doug Grim, Steve Gilboy, Eric Ruth, John Kearney, Jim Sheridan and John Hackworthy.

Freshman football Coach Gene Davis introduced the members of his squad and summarized the season.

Top Distance Runner Heselton took over for Cross Country Coach Art Denney (who was ill with the flu) and reviewed the harrier highlights as well as presenting the team. The Vikes had a 4-2 dual meet record and placed fourth in the MC meet.

Heselton reported that Denney rates MC champion Tad Pinkerton "the outstanding distance runner of all time at Lawrence and one of the best inspirational leaders, as well."

The unbeaten Vike freshmen harriers were also introduced.

Other banquet remarks were made by Lawrence President Douglas M. Knight and by toastmaster Tom Wenzlau, a Vike faculty member. The Rev. Ralph T. Alton gave the invocation.

Barney Ross and Jimmy McLarnin.

The fight Canzoneri liked most to talk about was the second of three with Berg for the junior welter crown.

"All you had to do with Berg was move back one step and then let the right go up," said Tony. "I only did one day's road work for the fight because I knew I didn't have to move. I was hitting him too high at first with the right. Then in the third he stepped back and I let go. It landed right and the fight was over."

"But the next time we fought, I couldn't hit him with anything, but I won the decision in 15."

Canzoneri was divorced by his wife, dancer Rita Ray, about eight years ago. They had a daughter, Denise, now 21. He also is survived by two sisters and a brother.

Flood Pounds 618 Grocers' League Series

Carl Treichel's 614 Aggregate Tops Tap-a-Keg Loop

Grocers league bowlers at the Elks club Thursday evening were paced by Ed Flood and his 618 for WAPL. One of his games was a 246. Rougeau's (25-14) leads the circuit by one game.

Carl Treichel cracked a 250 and 614 for an honors sweep in the Tap-a-Keg wheel at the Barn tavern. He bowls for Schabows bar. The Barn (25-14) won three games and leads by four.

Chester Stein thumped a 589 for first place Modern Electric (27-12) the front runner in the ACA Veterans wheel. One of his games was a 233.

"Windy" Glaser cracked a 589 for Stranen's bar in the Elks Craftsmen's circuit. Clark cleaners (24-15) copped a pair of lines and is 14-games in front.

Unloads 525 Hahn's Women's league bowlers were fronted by Eileen McCarey and her 525 threesome for Stop and Shop. She rolled games of 192 and 205 along the route. Fountain Lumber copped a pair of games as did Hall Realty (27-12) and they remained tied for first place.

Other honor scores in the Grocers loop: Alan Laux, 562; Mike Kling, 227; 532; H. Doerflinger, 561; "Bud" Griesbach, 588; H. Hancinman, 557. Tap-a-Keg tallies: Vic Berrens, 576; "Chuck" Davidson, 241; Pete Van Haelst, 580; Ray Potter, 532.

Can you see the 27 changes?

When Volkswagen first produced their cars they decided to put their money into changes that would improve the car rather than make last year's model obsolete. Over the past decade, almost every part in the Volkswagen has been changed, but not its heart or face.

The Volkswagen changes continually, throughout each year. There have been 27 changes in the Volkswagen this year alone. VW has, for example, added a stabilizer to the front axle. It lets you take curves smoothly at higher speeds. New insulation has been installed to dampen engine and road noise.

These changes like all VW changes leave the Volkswagen looking the way it should — like no other car. As a consequence, a used VW today sells for almost as much as a new one. And a new one is the best automotive value in the world. We'd be glad to show you all the reasons why. Come in this week... drive one.

Vike Matmen Enter Meet

Compete at UW Saturday; Varsity Squad Numbers 12

The 1959-60 Lawrence college wrestling team opens its season Saturday in the Wisconsin Invitational meet in Madison.

Six members of the 12-grappler Vike squad have been named to compete Saturday. They are headed by rough-and-ready Bob Smith, who won the Midwest conference heavyweight championship as a sophomore last season.

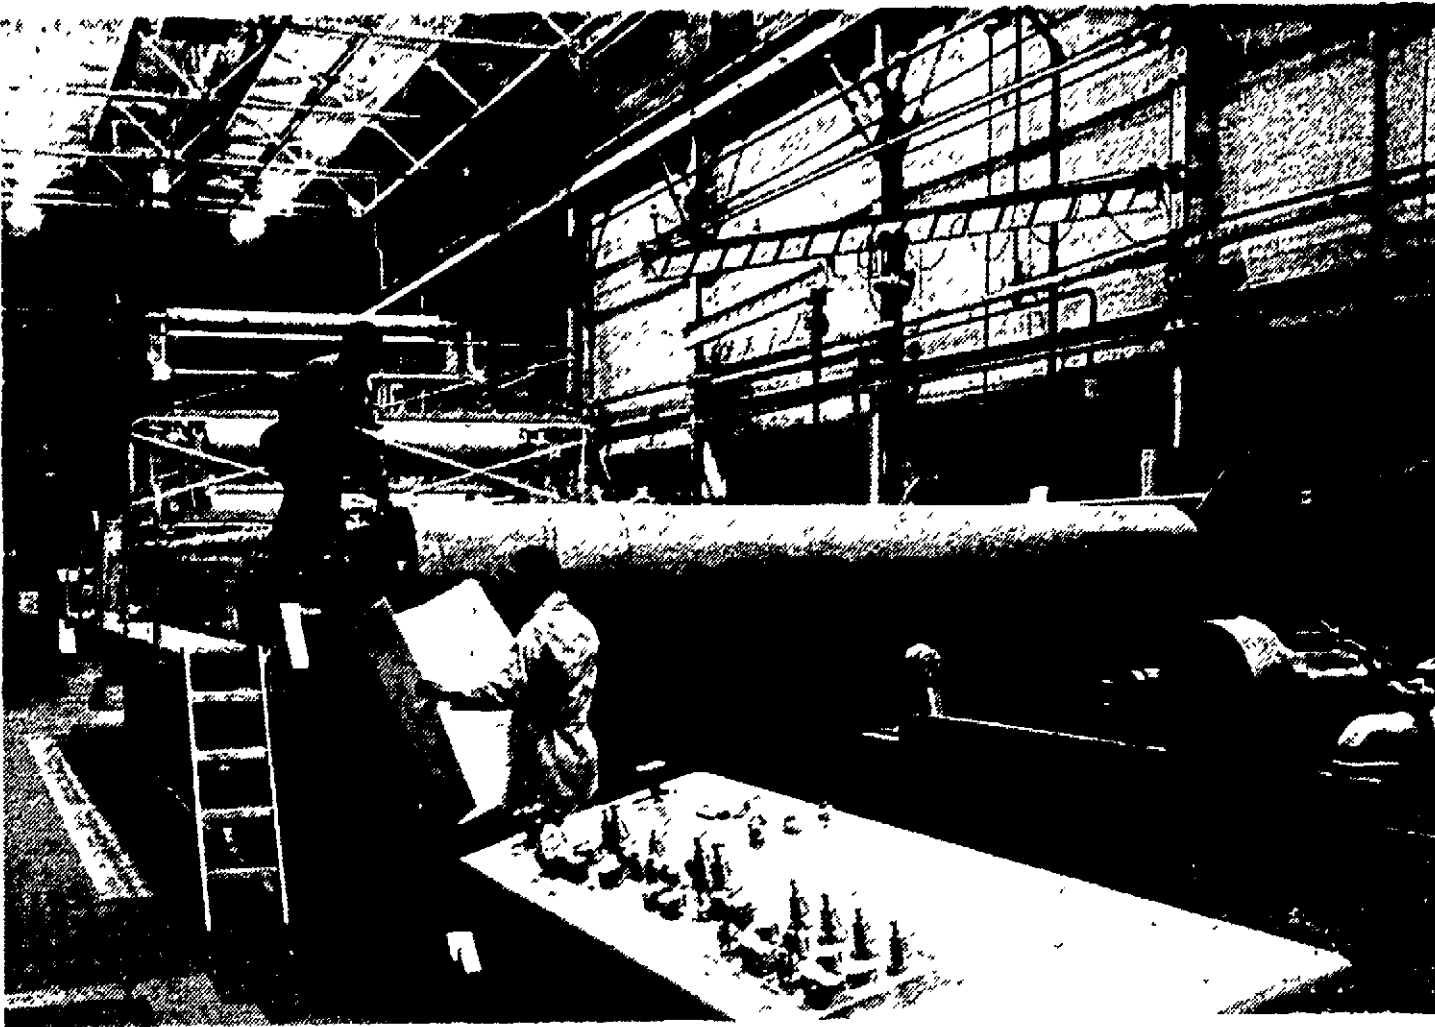

Kaufmann to Compete
Sophomore Scott Adam will represent Lawrence at 130 pounds. Dick Kaufmann, who won all of his freshman matches last season, will compete at 137.

Ashley Haase, a junior letterman, will be the Vikes' 157-pounder. He won the nod for the trip by wrestling off with sophomore Bob Buchanan and winning narrowly, 2-1.

Other Vike representatives will be sophs Jim Eastman (167) and Pete Thomas (177). Last season's Vike frosh team was undefeated in four matches.

Ten seniors are expected to enter the meet. They include the varsities of the University of Wisconsin and Marquette and such others as Carroll Stevens Point, University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee, River Falls and Ripon. The preliminaries will be held in the morning, with the finals set for the UW fieldhouse floor at around 3:30—a first for the Wisconsin - Loyola basketball game.

Vike varsity squadmen, besides those already mentioned, are sophomores Rick Price (137 or 147 pounds), of Neenah; Darrow Glockner, (heavyweight); and Eric Ruth (191); and juniors John Dunning (191 or heavyweight) and

Order 'Specs' Of Clubhouse Addition Work

Architect Will Present Project to Public Works Board

Architect George Narovec has been given permission to draft specifications for the proposed addition to Reid Municipal Golf course clubhouse.

Park board members instructed him to take the specifications to the board of public works Tuesday for approval.

Narovec's plans envision conversion of the present porch into part of the clubhouse proper and enlargement of the porch to conform with the building line at the front of the structure.

Schumacher Pleas
Conversion of the porch to year-round use and the enlargement were sought originally to provide more space for winter use as a youth recreation center.

The park board also: Ordered that Ald. Schumacher be notified the park board has no jurisdiction over Huntley school grounds and cannot order construction of a skating rink and baseball diamond there. Schumacher asked for both at the last council meeting. The park board is suggesting Schumacher approach the school board with his requests.

Authorized distribution of $1,213 in retroactive pay to its 21 employees. The money was forwarded after the last council meeting at which council members ordered some $31,880 distributed in back pay to employees under its control. Effective date of the back pay is mid-April.

Seek Bids
Decided to call for bids, due Jan. 5, for a truck, truck with hoist, 15 fireplaces, 18 refuse baskets and 40 picnic tables.

Board Sec. Arthur J. Jones reported the proposed tree ordinance, getting forth a master tree plan, awaits a joint meeting.

Dave Grant (167). No seniors are on the squad.

Lawrence will be host to the 1960 MC meet March 4-5.

The Viking freshman team will see its first action Wednesday at Ripon. The candidates include "Hap" Summer (123 or 130). Charles Choucalas (123). Bill Wilson (137).

Bob Gerald (147). Pete Niehoff (157). John Klinkert (167) and Tom Shinabek (177).

Social Security Fight Soon, Proxmire Thinks

BY RICHARD P. POWERS

Washington—(AP)—Sen. William Proxmire says one of the major domestic issues to be fought out after congress returns in January is proposed changes in the social security act.

The Wisconsin Democrat has a suggested stepped-up benefits be paid for by increases in contribution taxes.

Only recently Chairman Wilbert Mills (D-Ark.) of the house ways and means committee indicated the committee plans some action on a large number of proposals for revision of the act.

Byrnes on Committee

The house committee, which must initiate any changes, has held lengthy hearings on these proposals. Rep. John W. Byrnes, Green Bay Republican, is a member of the committee.

"A battle royal is shaping up over a bill which would extend hospital and other medical benefits to the elderly as part of their social security," Proxmire said.

"I already have received a volume of mail on both sides of this issue which is astonishingly heavy for a non-session period."

Methodists Plan Washington Seminar

A Washington seminar is being planned by the Board of Christian Social Relations of the Wisconsin conference of the Methodist church in the nation's capitol Feb. 22 to 26.

Three areas will be covered—social and economic relations, temperance and public morals, and world peace. The seminar is open to 60 Wisconsin conference Methodists.

Eau Claire, is general counsel of the atomic energy commission.

Sen. Alexander Wiley, 75-year-old Republican, now serving his fourth 6-year term in the senate, smilingly declines to say at this time whether he intends to run for re-election in 1962.

However, those who are close to him say it is a good bet that he will seek a fifth term. They note that he keeps in close touch with state matters and makes frequent speeches in various parts of the state.

Wiley won in 1956 even though the Republican state convention declined to back him and supported then Rep. Glenn Davis.

Wiley is now finishing his 21st year in the senate. Only nine senators, eight Democrats and one Republican, outrank him in length of service.

The census bureau estimates that Wisconsin's congressional delegation will remain its 10 house seats after the 1960 census.

The house has 435 members. Under present law, a reapportionment of the house will be made, based upon the population of each of the states, after the 1960 census.

The census bureau said indications are that 18 states will have a change in the number of house members, with five states gaining new members and 13 losing one or more.

Washington Seminar

A Washington seminar is being planned by the Board of Christian Social Relations of the Wisconsin conference of the Methodist church in the nation's capitol Feb. 22 to 26.

Three areas will be covered—social and economic relations, temperance and public morals, and world peace. The seminar is open to 60 Wisconsin conference Methodists.

Senate Passes Market Plan

Farm Program Bears Little Resemblance To Governor's Idea

Madison—(AP)—A farm marketing program has been approved by the Wisconsin senate but it bears little resemblance to the plan proposed by Gov. Gaylor Nelson.

The Republican - controlled senate passed a watered-down bill to establish controls over marketing of agriculture products by a 16-11 vote Thursday.

The bill exempts however, dairy products, flowers, timber and wood products from controls.

Proponents of the legislation called it self help for farmers since no mandatory features are included and two-thirds of the farmers involved in a commodity marketing order must request its issuance.

The assembly had passed the marketing program requested by Gov. Nelson but this has been pigeon holed in a senate committee. The bill approved Thursday was drafted by the Wisconsin Farm Bureau which opposed Nelson's assembly bill which provided broad controls.

Motor Issues Move Higher

Remainder of List Irregular During Moderate Trading

New York — Motors were a bright spot in an irregularly lower stock market early this afternoon. Trading was moderately active.

Gains and losses of fractions to about a point prevailed among most pivotal stocks.

Motors did well as Detroit reports were of the biggest weekly production schedule since steel shortages began to cut output in October.

Ford advanced well over a point.

Steels, oils, rails, aircrafts and tobaccos were mostly lower. Drugs, building materials and mail order-retail stocks moved ahead on balance.

American Motors, up about a point, and Chrysler, ahead more than a point, helped carry the banner in their group.

A loss of around a point by U.S. Steel and a drop of around 2 by Jones & Laughlin highlighted the losing steel section.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was off 40 cents to $227.80, the industrials off 50 cents, the rails off 50 cents and the utilities down 10 cents.

Corporate bonds declined slightly.

U. S. government bonds were steady to a shade lower.

Plan Second Building Day For Workshop

The second "Workshop B-day" is planned for Saturday, according to L. C. Smith, Kaukauna, president of the Fox Valley Sheltered Workshop.

The first building day was held last Saturday and 20 masons and helpers volunteered their time to work on the project. The walls for the office portion of the building were laid to a height of three feet and concrete blocks also were laid to a 3-foot height on two sides of the building.

Masons and helpers have again been urged by Smith to volunteer their services. Appleton union locals have backed the project.

Hot lunches, materials and labor have been donated by several firms.

Question Arises In Strange Case Of Poor Pumpkin

Madison — A pumpkin, pumpkin, who's got the pumpkin?

The question loomed large among federal authorities at Madison today. U. S. Attorney George E. Rapp said that 286 cases sent from a Minnesota canner to a La Crosse store had been seized. But U. S. Marshall Ray H. Schoonover said that the pumpkin in question not only hadn't been seized, it hadn't even been located.

Schoonover said he was directed by the U. S. Food and Drug administration regional office in Minneapolis to seize cans bearing a certain code at a La Crosse warehouse.

"The cans we were instructed to seize were not there," Schoonover said.

"Somebody made a mistake."

Rapp said Thursday night that federal seizure proceedings were started after inspectors claimed that the shipment contained a starch substitute for pumpkin and that the containers held a "filthy substance from dirty pumpkins."

Ald. Ervin J. Bogan Seeks Reelection In Twentieth Ward

Twentieth ward Ald. Ervin J. Bogan today took out nomination papers for reelection April 5.

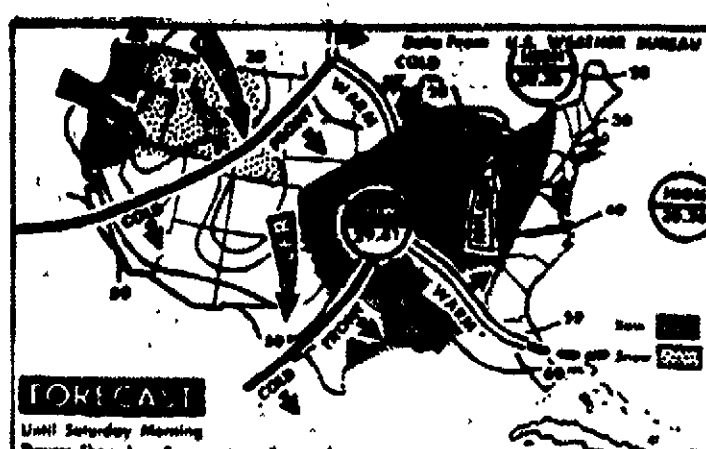

Bogan, 58, of 1122 W. Commercial street, has the most service of any city alderman. He was elected in 1939 and has served continuously since.

Bogan except for the two years between 1948 and 1950 when he was defeated by Orville Abendroth.

Driver Denies He Left Crash Scene

Charles R. Barr, 27, of 4283 W. Tenth street, Kaukauna, has denied leaving the scene of an accident and posted $33.95 bond for trial March 28.

Barr was charged after a 2-car accident about 1:30 a.m. Dec. 4 on County Trunk Z, just west of Kaukauna. The other car involved pursued Barr's car, but could not catch it. Barr told county police he remembered no accident in which his car was damaged.

Precipitation Is Ahead Tonight for an area from the Appalachians and central Gulf states to the south and central plains. The eastern third of the nation will be milder but the central plains and central Rockies will be colder.

Suggested Bank Tax Rate Revision Faces Showdown

Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Madison — One of the most familiar complaints of Democratic politicians during election campaigns of the last decade has been the supposed discrimination of the state corporate income tax with respect to taxation of banks.

There may be a showdown on the issue in the present legislature, because a part of the tax package of Gov. Nelson is a proposal to increase the taxation of banks and to impose the tax laws on some of their competitors.

The net gain estimated for the proposed tax on about 450 banks and 150 savings and loan associations is about $3,000,000. The legislation purports also to tax credit unions, profits than does a manufacturing corporation, because the state is not constitutionally empowered to tax the yield on U.S. government securities and a substantial share of the typical bank's profits in a normal year is derived from earnings of such securities.

The bank is therefore able to apply the whole of its operating costs, for deduction purposes, to its relatively smaller remaining taxable income from ordinary commercial investments, thus enjoying a lower effective tax rate than another corporation or a bank that has not put any of its money into tax exempt investments.

State lawyers have toyed with the problem of revising the bank tax laws for years, and this year concluded that constitutional barriers are such that the most effective approach would be to abandon the income tax method and to apply a franchise tax on financial institutions. Under national law such a franchise tax is valid, but only if it is applied equally to the competing financial institutions.

Others Included

The principal competitors of the banks are the savings and loan associations, and they are included in the proposed franchise tax because of that technical requirement.

Historically the savings and loan associations have been exempt wholly from income taxation, as cooperatives, a circumstance banks have criticized. Whether the savings and loan tax would become a precedent for future taxation of other cooperative enterprises that enjoy tax exemption is now a subject of a considerable speculation.

Savings and loan associations, which have shown influence in other legislatures, have protested bitterly what they claim is the abrupt abandonment of a century of deliberate state tax policy designed to nurture and encourage mutual financial institutions. The savings and loan groups serve a vital social purpose, they argue, by providing credit for home buying and home building in scores of Wisconsin communities. Their dividends to shareholders, they assert, are the equivalent of interest payments made to the depositors of banks.

Dividends Untaxed

Administration representatives reply that savings and loan profits returned to shareholders as dividends won't be subject to taxation. The tax will apply only to profits retained as reserves.

The proposed franchise tax will apply on a rate schedule identical to the present table of taxes effective under the corporation income tax. Most of the credit unions will be exempt because the bill provides no tax liability when the bulk of credit union loans is made to members, which is the typical experience of the credit union.

Gov. Nelson has told the legislature that many banks today pay no income tax whatever. Others pay far less than other corporations earning the same profits, he claims. The banking industry on the whole now is paying only about one third of the state tax load it would bear if all its profits were taxed on the same basis as other corporate profits, he says. Moreover, banks enjoy a substantial exemption from personal property taxation, he pointed out.

Bankers Opposed

Banking spokesmen have insisted that the corporation tax laws apply to them as they apply to all other corporate enterprises, and the fact of their exemption on account of federal security interest earnings is not discriminatory. Other investors in U. S. bonds, including corporations and individual capitalists, enjoy the same tax exempt status they told the legislature.

They also have maintained they are rigidly regulated with respect to their investment and management practices and the laws

AHS Yule Concert Set Sunday Program To Feature Three Organizations

Traditional Christmas music will be heard at the annual public Christmas concert given by the Appleton High school band, choir and orchestra in the AHS auditorium at 3 p.m. Sunday. About 200 students will participate. The orchestra, directed by Russell Thorne, will play "Symphony No. 102" by Joseph Haydn; "Suite for String Orchestra" by Edward T. Miley, a 2-part composition, and "A Merry Christmas" by Carl Frangkiser.

"'Twas the Night before Christmas" by Darby will be sung by the chorus. John Edwards will be the featured soloist. Other numbers will be "O Magnum Mysterium" by Victoria, Handel's "And the Glory of the Lord" from the "Messiah," an Appalachian carol "Jesus, Jesus Rest Your Head" by Niles, and Davis's "Carol of the Drum." Lester Schulz directs the chorus.

Specialty Numbers
Three soloists will be featured in one of the band numbers "Richard III Overture" by Edward German. Playing incidental solos will be Judy Given and Ellen Larson, oboes, and Paul Strieby, cornet.

Directed by Frank Comella, the band will play "March Onward" by Ernst Luthold, "Dizzy Fingers" by Zex Confrey which features the clarinet section, and "An Old English Christmas" by James Ployhar which includes such songs as "The Friendly Beasts," "Coventry Carol" and "The Twelve Days of Christmas."

require them to maintain a liquidity of reserves to maintain local channels of individual and commercial credit. Having a large portion of their reserves in U. S. government securities, they assert, is necessary to maintain required liquidity.

Like other businessmen, bankers also protested that piece-meal state tax revision is unwise and the state should defer tax rewriting until the legislature has heard the report of the citizens commission on revenue problems.

One Million Cars Will be Built Up to Jan. 26

Detroit — The auto industry plans to build almost one million cars between now and Jan. 26 when the Taft-Hartley injunction runs out in the steel strike.

Production beyond that date will depend strictly on the steel negotiations. If the strike resumes, car building will grind to a halt—not immediately but considerably sooner than it did when the strike first started.

If the strike is settled the automakers under current plans will continue to build at or near record rates through March. Publicly at least, the auto industry much prefers to look on the bright side—that steel will be available. It feels some of the sales lost due to a shortage of cars in the final quarter of 1959 never will be made up in the 1960 model year. And it is fearful another production shutdown might put a permanent blight on the year.

Satellite to Help Weather Forecasts

Cape Canaveral, Fla. — U.S. weathermen may soon be able to make forecasts by studying pictures taken by a satellite whirling 400 miles in space.

In mid-January, the national aeronautics and space administration is scheduled to launch the first of two experimental meteorological satellites containing cloud - scanning television cameras. The second will be sent up later next year.

The operation is known as project Tiro.

If successful, the Tiro satellites will provide meteorologists with enough pictures to reconstruct cloud patterns over a large portion of the earth. This will enable them to detect quickly developing storms and cold fronts.

The first satellite, to be launched by a Thor-Able rocket, will be a 40-inch sphere weighing 150 pounds.

Spanish Yule Party at AHS Mexican Folk Customs Observed By Students

Two Christmas customs typical of Mexico were used for the Christmas party held by members of the Appleton High school Spanish club Wednesday afternoon.

Before the students entered the room they carried on the traditional "posadas" which the Spanish use to represent the trip of Mary and Joseph to Bethlehem. Leaders for the groups were Cathy Crowe and Sue Berkvam, Barbara and Sue Kriek, and Lynn Weinkauf and Mary Lawless. The program was based on the theme of the "Tertulia." Its main feature was the story of the poinsettia, the traditional flower of Christmas. Stevie

Gives Description Of 3-Fold Imperialism

Toledo, Ohio — Maj. Gen. Mian Hayaud Din, Pakistan's military attaché in the U. S. gave this light description of three types of imperialism in a speech here:

American — where a man feeds his cow every day but fails to milk it.

British — where a man milks his cow every day but never feeds it.

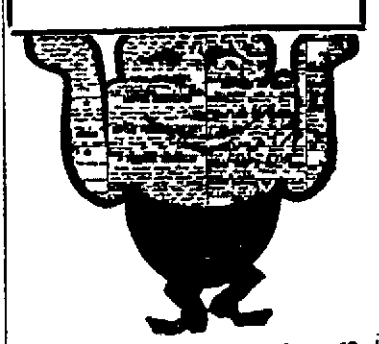

Russian — where a man doesn't want to bother to feed

Do FALSE TEETH Rock, Slide or Slip?

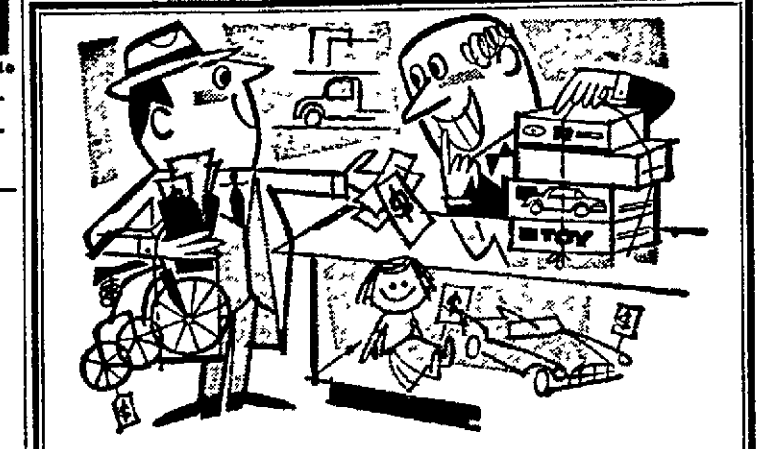

PASTEETH, an improved powder to be sprinkled on upper or lower plates, holds false teeth more firmly in place. Do not slide, slip or rock. No gummy, sooty, pasty taste or feeling. PASTEETH is alkaline (non-acid). Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get PASTEETH at any drug counter.
